Mr. Conger and Mrs. Heninger, senior high counselors, discuss an article from "Better Schools," a publication by the Board of Education for teachers.

COUNSELORS HELP US PREPARE FOR THE FUTURE

Jangling telephones, clicking typewriters, chattering people, and constantly crowded offices on a warm September day are the sure signs that school has started and the counselors' rush has begun. Counseling is a full time job as Mrs. Heninger, Mr. Conger, and Miss Hanauer certainly know. Administering tests, arranging schedules, compiling records, and generally being on hand to answer students' queries constitutes a large part of their profession. In spring, as the time for making out options rolls around, their crowded days are crammed with appointments as they help students prepare for their futures. All of these things make up a counselor's usually busy day.

The secretaries' days are no less hectic. They are filled with a never-ending round of typing, mimeographing and letter writing. Together Mrs. Betty Keller, Miss Marion Rothert, Miss Barbara Bicking, and the school treasurer, Miss Mildred Husemann, assist counselors and principals, and cheerfully and patiently counter the grievances and questions of the student body.

TEACHERS PREPARE FOR THE WORLD OF STUDY

Three o'clock—there goes that familiar bell! Kids rush out from all over as another day has come and gone, but not so with our teachers. Their days are not halted by that final bell. Many remain late into the afternoon to help us with perplexing problems, or to offer individual coaching. Others stay to supervise clubs, publications, athletics, and musical activities. Often teachers must attend professional meetings and study groups or take part in curriculum planning on city-wide committees. At night there are still papers to grade, lessons to plan, and tests to compose. With all of this, they must still, somehow, find time to read widely on their subjects and keep abreast of current affairs. Is it any wonder that teachers are busy people? Even in the good old summertime, when the livin' is easy, and the student is enjoying his vacation, some teachers are sitting in university classrooms, gathering more valuable information for their forthcoming pupils to study. Other teachers obtain first-hand information as they visit the places and countries to which their subject is most closely related. The teacher's vacation ends on Labor Day, as he must report to the school for an opening meeting. No, students aren't the only ones who must study and prepare the day's work. West Hi's teachers carry a full schedule, 'round the clock.

These Mexican travelers, Holly Mott, Miss O'Hara, and Miss Murphy, are sharing vacation memories.

TEACHERS AND PARENTS STRIVE

Mrs. Scheider gives flowers to Mr. Wuerdeman and Miss Hoover in honor of Teachers' Recognition Day.

The goal of both parents and teachers at Western Hills is to work toward the development of pupils. Whereas teachers are concerned with individual pupil development, the Parents Association and Dads Club strive to benefit the school as a whole.

The Parents Association sponsored Teacher Recognition Day held early in December, and terminated the year with a Graduation Day Breakfast for seniors. The Dads Club added to Western Hills by contributing money toward the new parking lot and girls' hockey field.

When school commences next year, the Parents Association and Dads Club will again be on hand to help improve West Hi for the students.

OUR DAY IN THE WORLD OF STUDY BEGINS EARLY

As early as seven-thirty in the morning, West Hi awakens from slumber. Sounds of musical instruments intermingle with lines of the class play, as performers get in some early practice. Nearer the gym, one may hear splashes of water as members of the swimming team race and dive in a before-school practice session. About eight o'clock the line at the bookstore lengthens; the sound of friendly chattering floats through the halls; and a bustle of activity fills the library. Soon clanging lockers and running footsteps resound as the warning bell rings. Homeroom is in session. Our day in the world of study has begun.

Mrs. Lewis, Lucy Fletcher, and Dan Steves arrive early for a busy day.

Susie Fischbach, laden with books, uses every moment to study for that prospective test.

Before school Jane Cottingham takes advantage of every ounce of space to catch up on her homework assignments as Barb Davis gets books for the coming day's classes.

AS A REWARD FOR OUR EFFORTS WE ACHIEVE HONORS

Six years of fun, excitement, and work, and then comes the special day when the final rewards for accomplishments are given, the day when one realizes that his efforts were not in vain. Then one is able to feel the satisfaction that comes from doing his best.

Western Hills gives its students many chances for gaining acclaim and honors. For the student who shows outstanding journalistic ability, there is the literary society, Quill and Scroll. For creative students there are essay contests, poster contests, and practical arts contests. For academic students there are scholarship tests and tuition awards with membership in Cum Laude and Class Valedictorian as ultimate goals. These contests and honors add much to the enjoyment and interest of school, for many times the teacher gives valued instruction in the preparation of an entry. But even more important, every student leaves Western Hills with a wide background of academic knowledge and practical experience.

Mr. Yung beams proudly as he taps his son, Carl, for Cum Laude.

WE LOOK TOWARD A NEW WORLD AFTER GRADUATION

"Strike up the band!" is the familiar cry of Mr. Shackelford, conductor of the German Club band.

Hanging the pinata, a paper maché angel filled with candy, is Jerry Rape's privilege as president of Spanish Club. The officers look on.

WE CLOSE OUR DAY WITH CLUBS

In the mad rush that follows the ringing of the three o'clock bell, many students wend their way to the world of academic clubs. There they learn together, work and plan together, and play together to form close friendships and gain in practical knowledge.

The German Club is a good example of this fellowship. While the band rehearses, other students busily prepare for their bi-monthly German newspaper. At the end of the school year, they gather at Mecklenberg's for the traditional German "fest" to celebrate another year gone by.

The Spanish Club too, has many diversified activities. Early in October, the club was privileged to hear five Mexican students tell of their schools, customs, and home-life. The members celebrated Christmas with the breaking of the pinata, an old Mexican custom, and late in the year they visited the Spanish Inn for a spicy meal.

THE BIG WIDE WORLD OF FUN

With alacrity and joy
We bound up the steps
That lead to
The Big Wide World of Fun . . .
In school and out,
In classrooms and clubs,
We make an important discovery . . .
That fun
Is a part of work
And working together is fun.

What's this crazy game? It's Ken Conatser and Janice Ose trying desperately to balance an orange between their noses at one very typical West Hi party.

FUN IS IN THE AIR

"Rose La" Czerwinski shows he's got (or rather has bought) what it takes. Proof: the audience.

Fun is intangible but ever-present in the many activities enjoyed by West Hi's teenagers. It doesn't have to be elaborate or expensive—just a bunch of kids enjoying each other's company at a party, a class dance, or even in the shower room after a winning game. All it takes is a bit of youth's irrepressible gaiety, a portion of high spirits, a smidgen of wit, and a dash of mischief, and there it is—fun.

We realize that our high school days will probably be our most carefree and happy, so we take advantage of everything—even a cold winter day when we turn our never-ending energy to skating on Tresler's Lake after school.

We find fun in school as well as out. Assemblies, Band, Bandwagon, Orchestra, Choir, and clubs give all of us a chance to express ourselves and appreciate the efforts of our fellow students. Kids are always looking for fun, but here we don't have far to look. Fun is everywhere.

These are the bare facts! Those oft repeated shower room jokes must be really hilarious. Comparing the latest, are Bob Gilpin, Warren Kirchner, Roger Franks, Harry Panaro, Jack Kiewit, and Joe Winn.

What's ahead for the Annual Staff? Loads of subscriptions because of this clever publicity skit! At least that's the hope of Heather Buck, Jim Suess, Alice Seidler, Joel Currie, and Janet Westerhaus.

Mike has all it takes for winter fun—the skates, the confidence, and the girl, Meg.

TEACHERS

Those talented teachers! Besides teaching us the three R's, Mr. Schick, with the thermometer at zero, teaches Messrs. Kuhn, Meier, Heubach and Kappes the art of doing figure eights.

Imitating the master, Mr. Heubach takes his usual skating position. Enjoying his predicament are Mr. Kappes and Mr. Meier.

Is this chemistry class or a Lone Ranger serial? It's really Mr. Dunkel's own formula: humor + knowledge = intelligence + happy students. The proof of this experiment is Jim Hallon and Warren Kirchner.

JOIN THE FUN

Our teachers represent well-rounded personalities. They teach us not only the seriousness of life, but also the contentment that comes from wholesome fellowship. They have learned long ago that play is as essential as work. Judging from these pictures one can tell that West Hi's teachers react enthusiastically to the many situations around them. Whether it is skating, golfing, or playing a game of bridge, teachers are found joining in the fun.

Our faculty supports our teams too, and seems to get as big a thrill from seeing a touchdown or a basket made, as the students do.

Some teachers find fun in teaching and enliven the classroom with their wit and pleasing personalities. They make the hardest subject clear and enjoyable. Yes sir! West Hi teachers spark the day.

Mr. Lust and Mr. Von Walden speak for bowling, but Mr. Beringer wants neither. Whatever they do they'll enjoy the company of Mr. Pauszek and Mr. McCartney.

The faculty can cheer too! Proof: First Row: Mr. Heuback, Miss Lewis, Mr. Dahlman. Second Row: Mr. DePollo, Miss Clonch, Mr. Gausman. Third Row: Mr. O'Toole, Mr. Minesinger.

The invitation usually reads "Bridge or Canasta?" Miss Davis, Miss Constant, Miss Peterson, and Miss Burk prefer Bridge.

Ready for the down-beat from Mr. Brady is our Western Hills Band.

OUR MUSICAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS PROVIDE FUN FOR MANY

All over this "big wide wonderful world," people love the sparkle and excitement of a big brass band. Here at West Hi, our band takes part in football games, pow-wows, parades, assemblies, and the all-city music festival.

Band members agree that the football games are the most exciting of all. They like to remember singing on the bus, cheering at a game, getting the "jitters" before a show, and that final glow of pride following a successful performance.

After this thrilling fall season, the brassy, fast-stepping one hundred and ten become the reserved, talented Concert Band, who will carry on for the rest of the season.

Practicing for the fan-fare are Al Deckenback and Ed Annavedder.

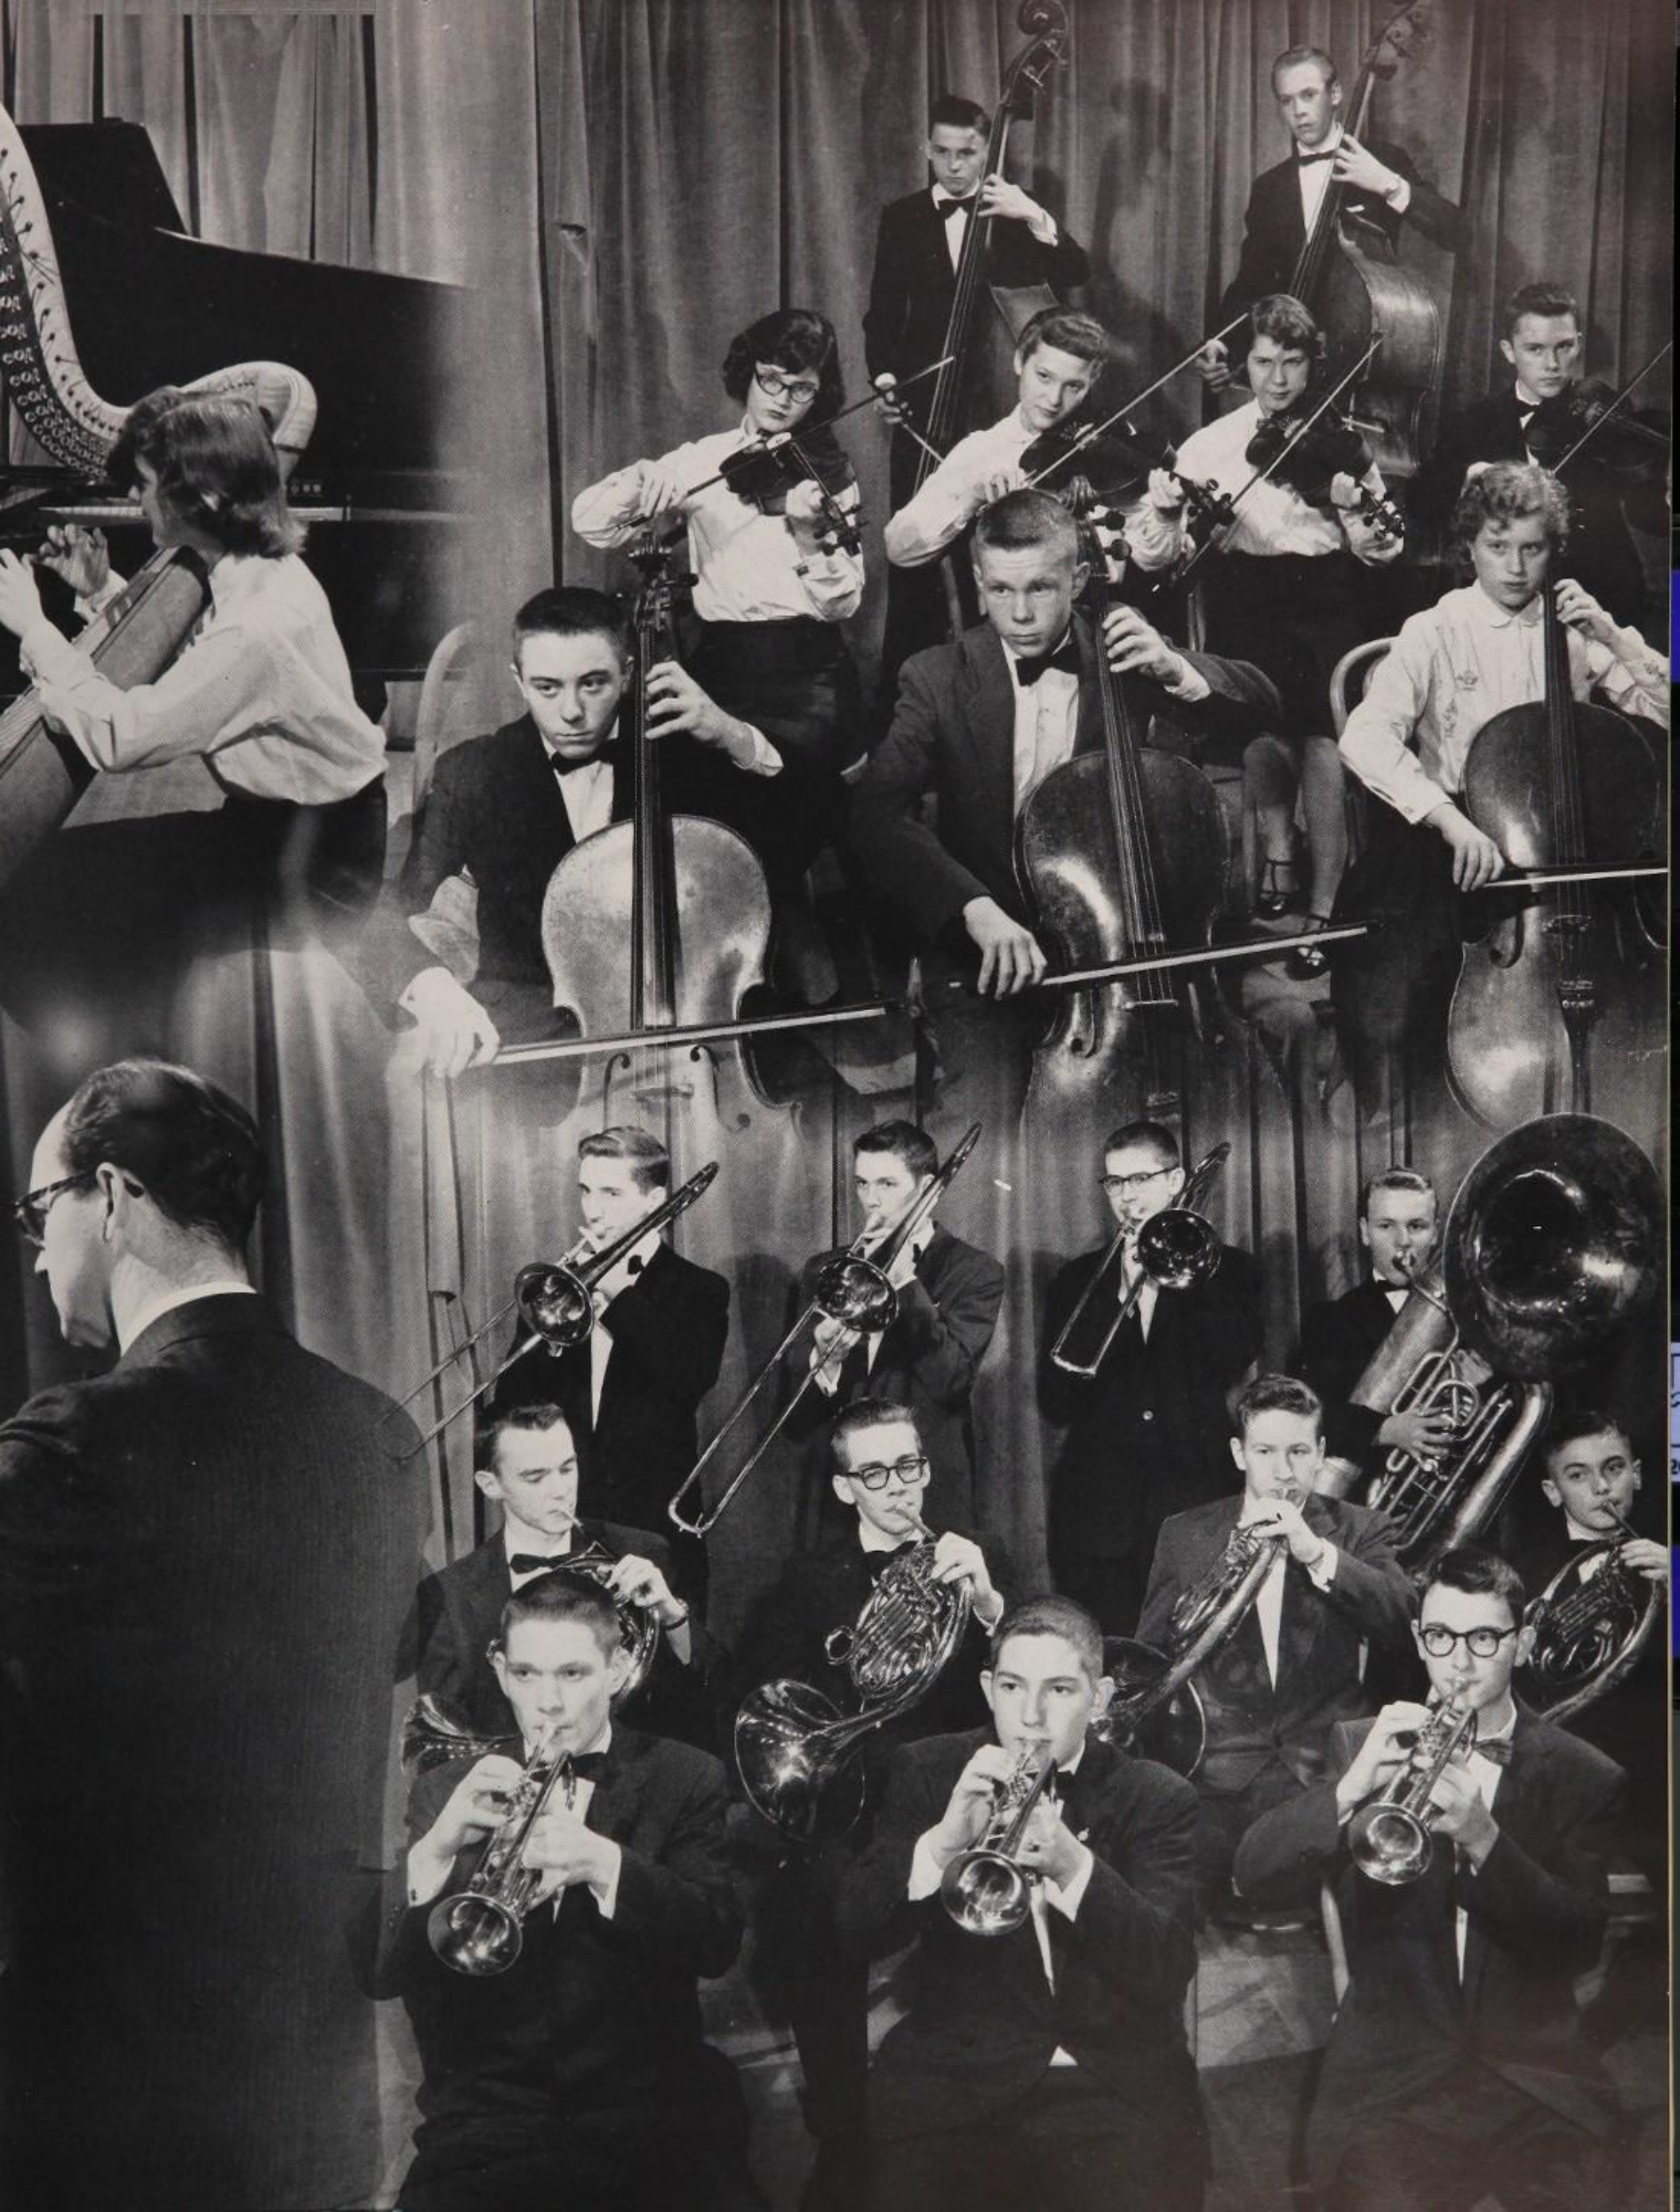
This year's majorette corps was tops! The six talented girls are Marcia Thielman, Julie Shinkle Kay Yearout, Janet Voll, Sue Gieringer, and Patty Tygrett.

WEST HI'S BAND ADDS SPARKLE AND EXCITEMENT TO THE FOOTBALL SEASON

Ken Hiest sparks the entrance of the West Hi band.

"Ya' got that spirit, yea man." These band members agree as they prepare to leave for the big game — Elder.

Well, this is it! After practicing all week, the band perfects a "West Hi" at one of the many night games.



". . . and now we present the Western Hills High School A Cappella Choir."

STUDENTS ENJOY THE CHRISTMAS BALLET CHOIR AND ORCHESTRA

With vim and vigor Marsha Eberhard and Ginny Vornheder execute the fastmoving "Russian Trepak."

The lights were dimmed and gradually the noise died down. Anticipation filled the air, as slowly and steadily the curtain was drawn to reveal Western Hills A Cappella Choir. With dignity and pride each and every member stood expectantly waiting for Mr. Rim to give the downbeat and to join his small part to the whole. Music joined each member with the director and all with the audience. Some were creating and others were just appreciating, but everyone was enjoying a beautiful presentation.

Talent, co-operation, artistry, and enjoyment combine to make West Hi's choir successful, for this group enjoys not only the harmony of music, but also the harmony of fun and fellowship. As a result, close and lasting friendships are established in this organization.

With the help of some of the other arts, the music department never fails to provide fine entertainment for Western Hills students and the community.

On pages 52 and 53 we present, in artistic montage, the Western Hills High School Senior Orchestra under the able direction of Mr. Andrew J. Brady.

Opening the '57 Bandwagon are choir members, D. Pfalzgraf, I. Fulmer, D. Spreen, G. Bruestle, B. Cook, T. Ionna, E. Hall, E. Kettlehut, J. Harnish, S. Brammer, and the pony chorus: S. Drew, D. Klemme, J. Tieman, J. Voll, E. Traub, B. Craig, J. Richardson, C. Cottingham, and J. Bothwell.

VARIETY KEYNOTES THE '57 BANDWAGON

Final touches on make-up are a last minute must.

Back-stage maneuvers are masked by on-stage glamour.

The satisfaction that comes from participating in Bandwagon means many things to many people. First, Bandwagon means work. A good production always demands never-ending energy and determination. Under the guiding spirit of Mr. Brady the show develops with each of the numerous and sometimes tiresome rehearsals. Next, Bandwagon means adventure, for with each new preparation the excitement increases. How each member of the cast must thrill to the drama, the glitter, and glamour of being a part of this spectacular. Above all, a successful Bandwagon means co-operation. Combining the many personalities and talents is a must. Finally, Bandwagon means glory—the glory of making new friends, the glory of performing, and even the glory of personal achievement. Because our 1957 Bandwagon lacked none of these essential qualities, it was vital, warm, and wonderful!

Dixie Kleme, Jack Berger, and Sandy Drew must have won their game—they're "Sitting On Top of the World."

All dressed up for her night of devilment, toe tapper, Elaine Traub.

The backbone of Bandwagon—our orchestra. First Row: N. Heisel, B. Koch, M. Peet, L. Jenkins, J. Hass, E. Roesner, T. Mathews, J. Hardy, E. Meyer, C. Schott, B. Johnson, D. Jeggle, D. "Little Nell," a clever melodrama, is enacted by Marion White, Billie Kaemmerle, Susie Hopping, and Carol Traut.

As Millie Poore slinks up stage, she becomes the hit of the show.

No wonder Florence Wondrack is "Late For Work." Isn't every girl's dream a mink coat?

Butterflies, shaking knees, and pounding hearts are ever present with performers as they await their act.

IT'S FUN TO PERFORM

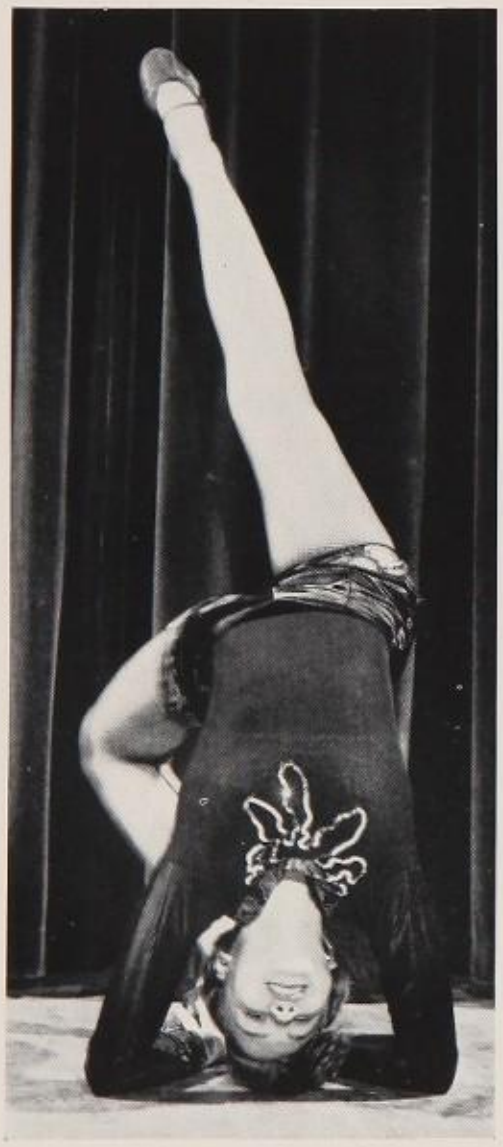
Believe it or not, these crazy clowns are Carol Cottingham and Judy Tieman, doing "We're a Couple of Swells."

All the excitement of a race track — the jockeys, Julie Miller and Pat Betts; the pony chorus; the auctioneer, John Race; and the horse, with rider, Toni Sillman.

Let's go "Up the Lazy River" with Janet Niehaus, Karen Vieth, Elaine Kettelhut, Marsha Eberhard, Carole Bierbaum, and Janice Ose.

Singing well known songs from "Carousel" our choir with soloists M. Craft, P. Frederick, and B. Cook create a Cape Cod atmosphere.

IT'S ALL OVER—UNTIL NEXT YEAR



An entertaining combination—Bonnie Craig's well coordinated movements, and the exotic strains of "Kismet."

"The Moon was Yellow," the night was young, and the girl was Rita Wohlwender.

Joyce Bothwell does a fast tap to "Chicago."

THE PLAY'S THE THING!

The tense cast waited nervously as the curtain went up for this year's Senior Class Play. As every member stood breathlessly awaiting his cue, thoughts ran back to six weeks before—thoughts of that Friday night of final casting, the endless hours of hard practicing, and the help so generously given by the director, Miss Margloin.

With the whispers of "good luck" the time to go on had come. The convincing acting of the entire cast kept the audience on the edge of their seats from the interesting complications to the surprise ending.

The entertaining plot was based on the impossible Sheridan Whiteside (Joe Bauer) who, accompanied by his secretary (Ginny Siegel), visited the Stanley's, where he fell and broke his hip. The hilarity that ensued when he was forced to remain until his hip healed, provided the audience with many laughs. The peaceful Stanley household was transformed into a turmoil overnight when the impossible Mr. Whiteside commandeered the entire household, monopolized the telephone and received exotic visitors and preposterous gifts. Further complications and amusement were provided by a sultry actress (Jetta Fannin), a playboy (John Race), and a fidgety nurse (Joan Niemes).

After the finale, when the last smudges of make-up had been removed, only memories were left for the cast as they recalled this year's success, "The Man Who Came To Dinner."

One of the many conversation pieces—a "Roach City!"

Heather Buck assists Miss Margolin in details of the production.

Consternation, nay, destruction descends upon the household at the appearance of Mr. Whiteside.

Mr. Benson studies the problem—to take a good picture of the Annual Editorial Board. Janet Voll helps. While the rest of the board, Kathy Eckert, Bonnie Bank, Joanne Melillo, Dick Simmonds, Bob Hartmann, Warren Kirchner, and adviser, Miss Weber, waited expectantly, an alert assistant snapped the picture.

THE ANNUAL STAFF FINDS THAT SPRING FEVER MEANS HARD WORK

"It's a Big, Wide Wonderful World—the World of Western Hills"—this was the challenge that faced each staff member as he set out to capture the World of Western Hills in pictures, captions and copy. The rush to schedule class pictures and collect money, the endless hours of coaxing the Western Hills merchants to buy ads marked the beginning of an Annual. Picture ideas began to roll in, and soon Mr. Benson arrived with his camera to catch the everyday life at West Hi. When the pictures were returned and distributed to each section, captions and copy had to be written, and often rewritten. Pictures had to be sized, proportioned, cut down and retaken. The dummies fast began to grow and take shape. Then the big day arrived when the pages came from the printer—and the nightmare of proof-reading began. But word by word the finished product emerged portraying the fascinating story of Western Hills.

Hard at work, and surrounded by clever posters for the subscription campaign, are Florence Wondrack and Welda Hartzler. Critically evaluating, are Jim Suess, Carol Schroth, Alice Siedler, and Heather Buck.

Sticky glue, big brushes, and scads of pictures are some of the problems for our staff: J. Kleeman, J. Shinkle, and B. Uffman, (standing); and Kay Kaiser, L. Miller, B. Strike, B. Gann, J. Miller, and P. Graf, (seated).

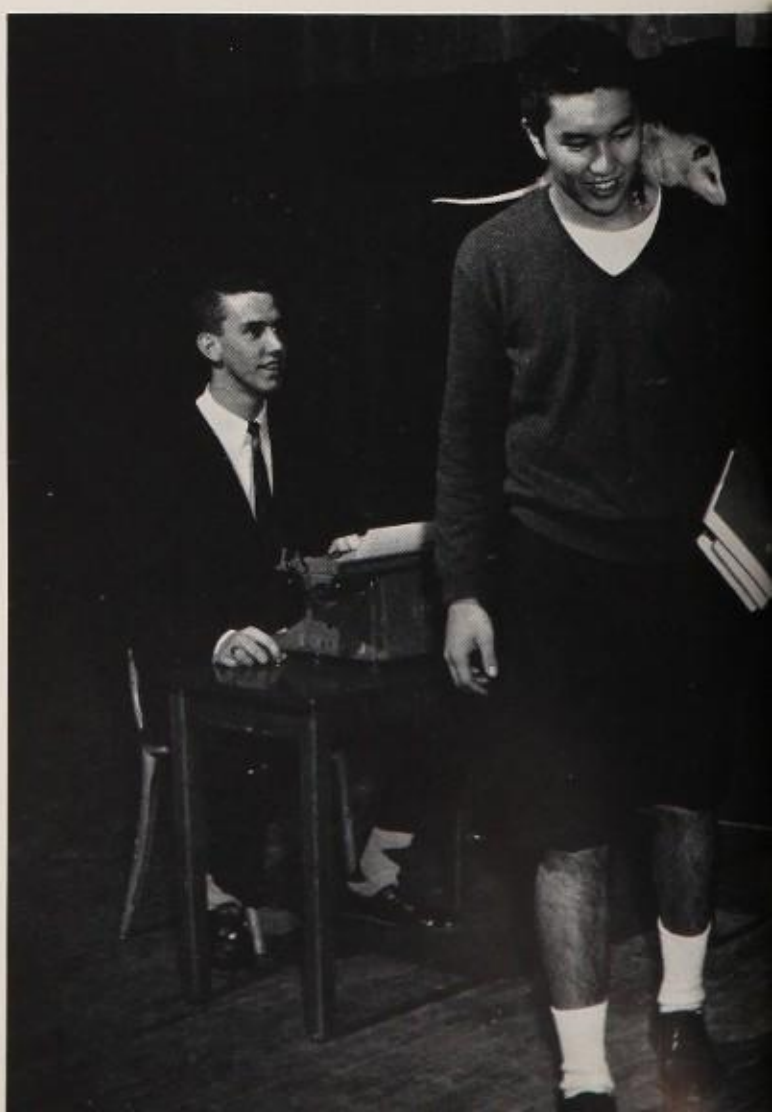
Carefully handling the money, is our efficient business staff: Bill Anderson, Ina McClaine, Craig Devine, Gary Pies, and Pat Land, plus our adviser, Mr. Love.

That must be the shower room picture they are looking at! Seen keenly observing it, are K. Yearout, L. Osborne, J. Ebel, and N. Walker, (seated), (Standing) B. Craig, G. Spencer, B. Nimitz, and J. Myers.

Editors Debbie Beiser, Joyce Bothwell, Lennie Lenzer, Laurice Liddil, Janet Avey, and advisor Miss Walters busy themselves at one of those famous "pasting parties."

OUR PRIDE— THE WESTERN BREEZE

One of the most anticipated events at West Hi is the arrival every two weeks of the newspaper, "The Western Breeze." School news, sports reviews and features crowd its pages from top to bottom. Producing a newspaper is a hard and tedious job, but a rewarding one. Staff members have many experiences—interviewing famous people, meeting new students, and learning the fundamentals of journalism. Under the leadership of Joyce Bothwell, Debby Beiser, and Miss Walters, the "Breeze" enjoyed a successful year.



Even though "Benny," the raccoon is stealing the show in the "Breeze" publicity skit, D. Busch, R. Shimizu, K. Sappington, and the chorus, J. Westerhaus, S. Vetter, D. Patterson and J. Box, do a terrific job of showing the life of an editor.

Our energetic salesmen are Gloria Bruestle, Sandra Glynn, Anna Winningham, and Lee Ruck, as they persuade students to buy the paper.

The "Breeze" is out! These eager beavers distributing the "Breezes" are Janice Mills, Ann Kerl, and Ann Alexander.

Proof-reading and filing are the other phases of the production. Checking past mistakes are Holly Mott, Sandy Voigt, Sandy Vetter, Barbara Hendrixson, and Julie Liggett.

Mr. Brady gives his final O.K. to the Band Letter Club officers, Dave Disser, Nancy Wohlwender, John Hardy, and Bob Howarth, as they check the letter sheets for next year's members.

CLUBS ADD SPICE TO SCHOOL LIFE

The many clubs of Western Hills are extremely important in shaping our world. Each individual can find friends with similar interests in some organization. A club gives every person the opportunity for self-expression and self-development. Even more important is the fact that such a group promotes the sense of belonging that is so essential for every teenager.

Many types of people are represented in the club world. The musically inclined find enjoyment in Band Letter Club and Orchestra Pin Club. Those who have a flair for the theater can satisfy their talent in the newly formed Dramatics Club. Hi-Y and Y-Teens include a well-rounded program. They help others through carolling and giving baskets to needy families, and enjoy their own fellowship at parties and hayrides. The club knits together the varied personalities of the students to make the world of Western Hills happy and content.

Joanne Haag, Joanne Calder, Ollie Hiers, and Judy Beers are glad for the chance of a last minute look at their script before a class-room production.

"Spike that ball girls; don't let those fellas win." That seems to be the goal of the Junior Y-Teens in their annual game with the Junior Hi-Y.

The board members of Phi Y-Teens and Hi-Y ponder over a perennial problem at West Hi—when to find a date for their meetings. Studying the problem are Mrs. Frehse, Bob Shimizu, Donna Hauss, Meg Flickinger, Toni Warburg, Mr. Nohr, Janet Westerhaus, Judy Ebel, Don Albert, Bob Czerwinski, Marsha Eberhard, Ralph Bolino, and Ed Molloy.

Janet Miller, Sue Backus, Barbara Hoefer show off their new West Hi sweat shirts with exuberant smiles.

Absent—Jean Wright.

UNITY IS OUR GOAL

School begins and the busy life of sororities and fraternities is soon in full swing. Plans for rushing are started, and excitement fills the air. After rushing comes to a close pledging begins. Finally, initiation vows are made and the rewards of being a member are fulfilled.

As the year progresses, our lives are dotted with many activities for the oncoming year. Who can ever forget the rustle of swirling skirts at that special dance, or the many informal get-togethers where gossip is exchanged and good wholesome fun is universal.

The life of a member is not all easy-going fun. Meetings and projects are well organized and taken seriously by each individual. The look of gratitude on a child's face at a welfare party is well worth the planning and organizing put into such an affair.

The responsibility of holding an office or having a job to do is a lesson to be carried on throughout future years. Without complete cooperation plans can not be carried out to their fullest. The organization is as strong as each individual member.

To provide an evening's entertainment, this year's Interfratority sponsored the "March Madness." Enjoying this novel match-me hop are Ron Day and Sandy Schwarz, Tom Ziegler and Joel Currie, Dick Hoffer and Lucy Fletcher.

What to do next is the main topic at this meeting of the new members of C.O.S. Planning their strategy for the evening are (standing) D. Schmidt, W. Nuckols, N. Wold, J. O'Connor, D. Rau, B. A FOOTBALL PLAYER'S DAY IS RUGGED

Few people realize the time, effort, patience, and ability necessary to create a Mustang grid star. Stan Muggenborg, the boy pictured here, was chosen to represent a typical West Hi football player. Stan and his teammates practice for three or four hours after school, and yet maintain a good scholastic average.

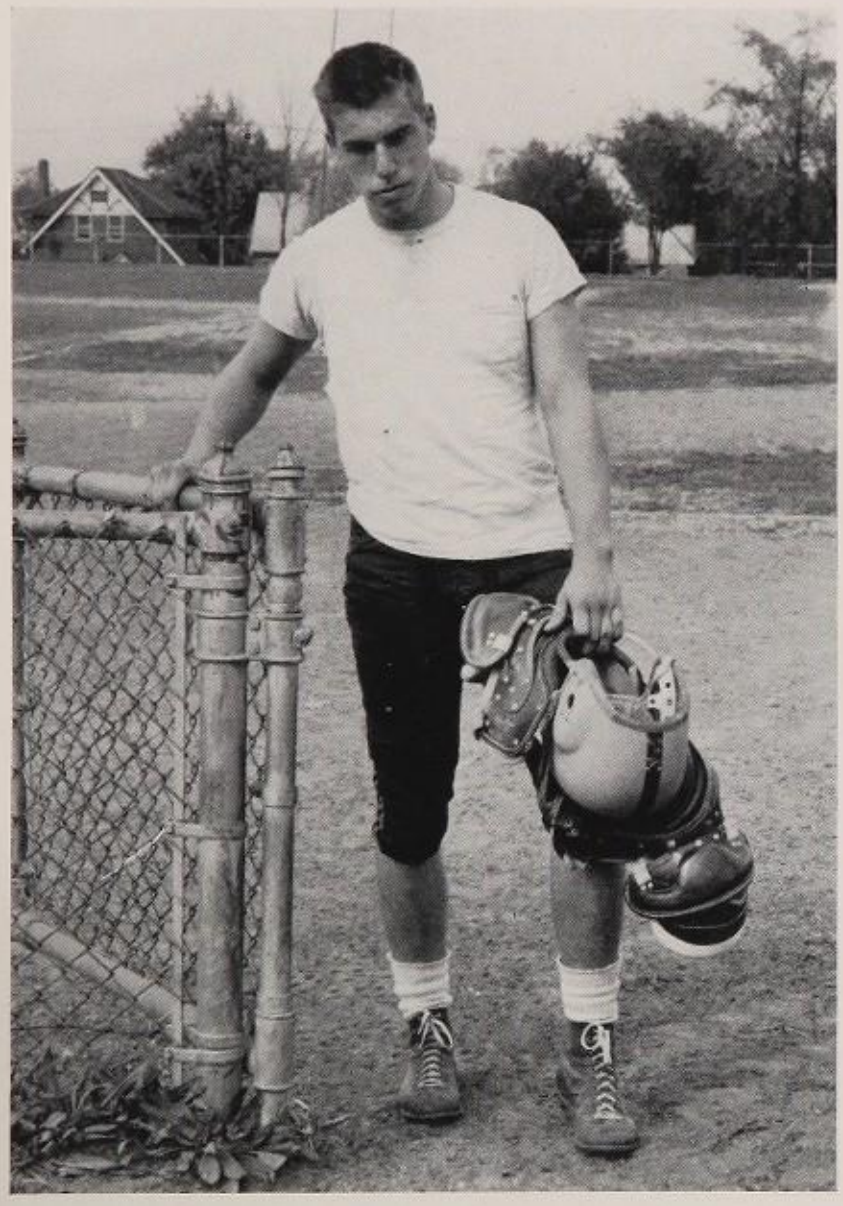
In the locker room Stan dresses for the daily grueling practice session.

Loosening up before practice is important.

Dressed and raring to get started, he hustles onto the practice field.

Practice sessions are not wasted as the action is fast and furious.

Home for supper after a tough day;
no matter what, it all tastes good.



A championship team is not all roses;
hard practice is a part of the game.

Good grades are essential in the life of any athlete.

"Coach of the Year" Robert Kappes plans the defenses for the next game with Assistant Coach Bill Nead as Captain Paul Maxwell looks on.

MUSTANGS CLINCH CITY CHAMPIONSHIP

The Maroon Mustangs, under the reign of Coach Bob Kappes, experienced the most successful football season since 1950, closing the year with an outstanding 9-1 record. With a perfect 6-0 Public High School League slate, the West Hi team lost only to powerful Purcell. A hard fought win over high scoring Newport Public set the pace for following games. The pinnacle of the season came on Thanksgiving morning when Elder, Greater Cincinnati League Champs, went down in defeat before the vehement Mustangs. The mythical city championship went to Western Hills as a result of the "turkey day" victory.

Captain Paul Maxwell, Tom Montgomery, and Harry Panaro were all-city first team selections. Bob Shimizu, Ken Sappington, Stan Muggenborg, Ron Ismael, Al Klein and Dick Kuehn received honorable mention. To conclude the brilliant season, Mr. Kappes was selected "Coach of the Year" in a poll taken by high school coaches in the Cincinnati area.

Captain Paul Maxwell leads the Maroon-Mustangs on to the field for an important pre-game workout. The players are Bob Brater, Paul Maxwell, Roger Frank, Doug Busch, Stan Muggenborg, Bob Sohngen, Tom Petry, Ernie Meisel, Terry Murphy, Carl Yung, Al Klein, Roger Vorherr, Jim Lemen, Bucky Diefel, George Burkeley, Ken Conatser, Dick Kuehn, Fred Schneider, Cliff Schwandner, Mike McMillan, Dan Voynovich, Ron Ishmael, Leroy Smith, Harry Panaro, Dick Hayes, Bob Shimizu, Tom Montgomery, Wayne Streibig, Ken Sappington, Mel Wulfekamp, Jack Kiewit, Bill Farrell, Charlie Schott, Jack Horton, Bob Gerdson, Al Chase, Mike Lemert.

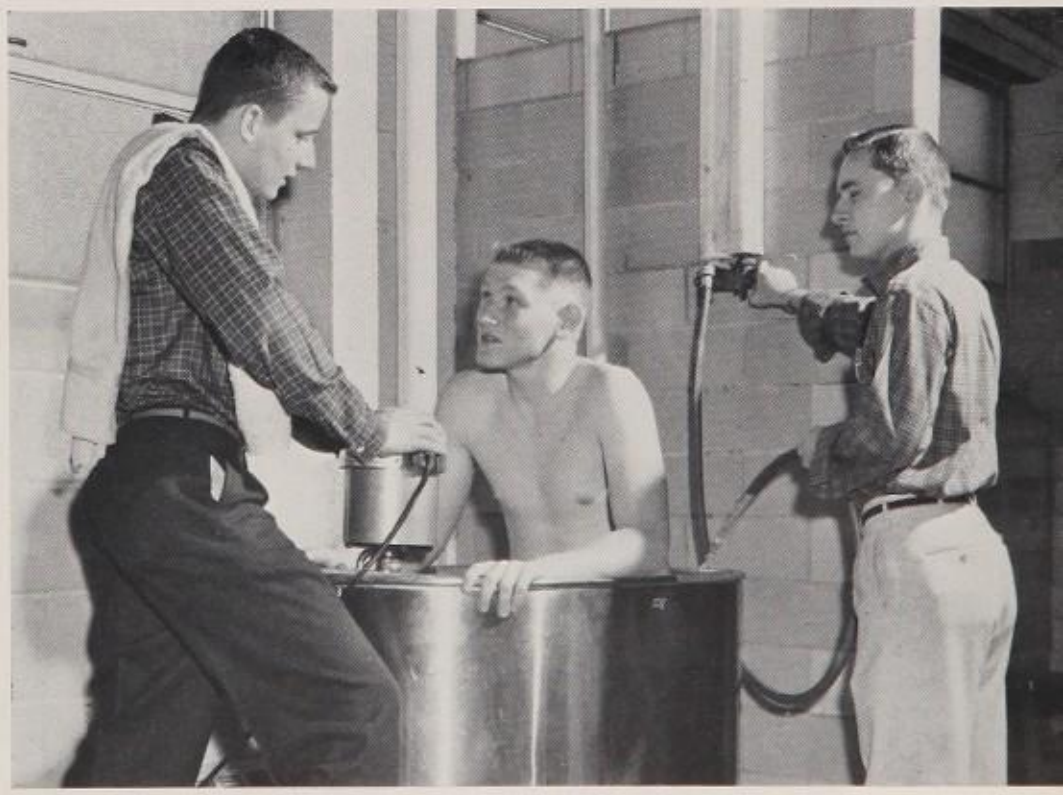
A perfect way to end the season—Coach Kappes is carried off the field after the Elder victory.

COLERAIN (38-0). Harry Panaro started the season off right by galloping 47 yards on the second play of scrimmage, for the first touchdown of the game. Terrific downfield blocking enabled backs Schwandner, Chase, Kuehn, and Panaro to gain ground at will. A stubborn defense stopped Colerain cold.

NEWPORT (14-7). Newport, previously having an average of 34 points a game, fell before the potent running attack of the Mustangs. Touchdowns by Panaro and Kuehn spelled victory. An alert defense recovered valuable fumbles. Also the kicking of Ken Sappington kept the Newport Wildcats deep in their own territory most of the game.

WALNUT HILLS (21-0). In the first game of the P.H.S.L. season, the Mustangs held the Eagles scoreless while racking up three touchdowns for themselves. Dick Kuehn sprinted for two yards just before the first half ended. In the second half Chase and Schwandner found paydirt to clinch the victory. The best Walnut could do was to penetrate down to the Mustangs 13 yard line, but again the defense did a superb job.

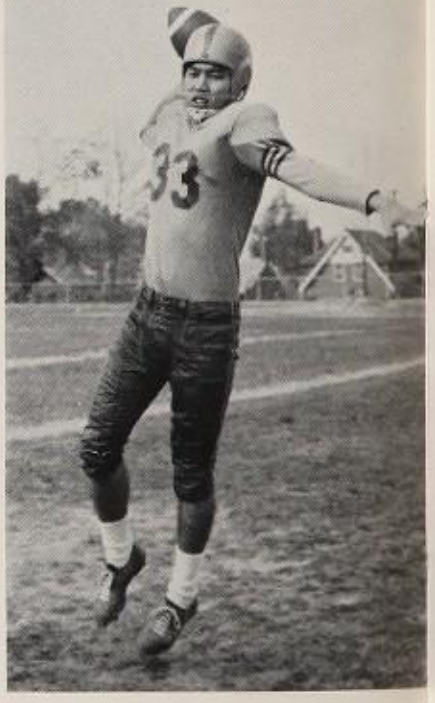
"Ouch!" screeches Mike McMillan as the swirling hot waters of the whirlpool surrounds his aching legs. N. Homan and S. Gibson assist.



Wayne Streibig carries two Tigers for extra yardage.

TAFT (34-7). Although Taft scored once on the Mustangs, it was hardly enough to cope with Western's 34 point onslaught. With perfect control of the ball, the Mustangs completely dominated the play. The running of Chase, Schwandner, and Kuehn, who led the backs with two T.D.'s, and the pass catching of Ron Ismael spelled trouble for the Senators. Again the defense showed it was going to be hard to beat.

PURCELL (6-21). Xavier Stadium was the scene of the battle between the unbeaten teams from which Purcell emerged the victor. The Mustang's line held up as previously expected but the passing of Ted Kunkemoeller and the pass-catching and running of Bob Kain were too much for the Mustangs. Dick Kuehn, West Hi's fullback, scored the Mustang's lone touchdown on a 20 yard run over left tackle.



Bob Shimizu, Quarterback.

Dick Kuehn, Fullback.

Paul Maxwell, Captain.

ON TO VICTORY

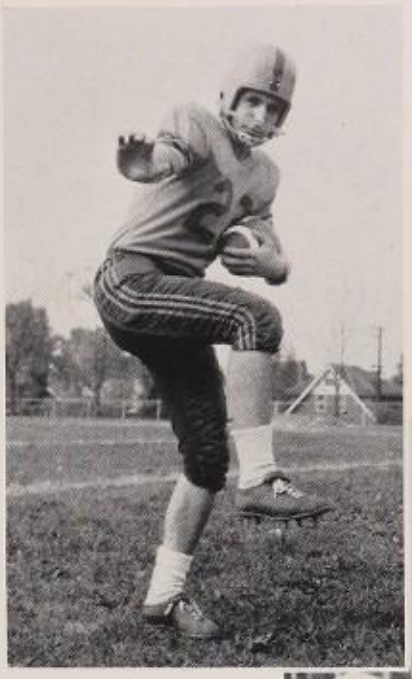
CENTRAL (7-0). Despite the poor playing conditions, West Hi virtually clinched the P.H.S.L. by downing Central 7 to 0. With lightning-like efficiency Western Hills scored its lone tally early in the second period. Again Kuehn and Panaro lead the ground-gaining attack with Panaro going over from the 26 yard line. Tom Montgomery and Paul Maxwell, bulwarks on defense, spearheaded the Mustang's defense as it held the hard running Knights scoreless.

HUGHES (45-0). It would have been better if the Big Reds from Hughes had stayed at home, for the drubbing they took was merciless. The Mustangs scored at will throughout the game. Wayne Streibig, defensive safety man, tried his hand at offense and scored two touchdowns. Five other backs broke the scoring column with single scores.

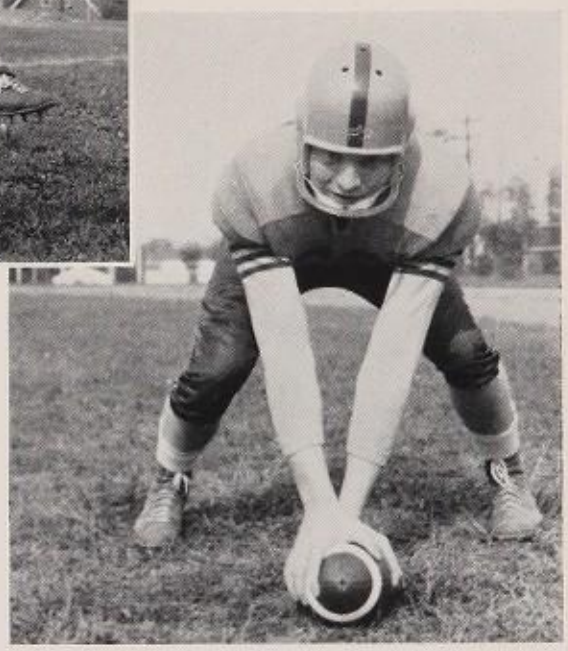
WITHROW (26-6). The Western Hills Maroon-Mustangs won their first P.H.S.L. title since 1950 when they won handily over the defending champions, the Withrow Tigers. Again Wayne Streibig was the big offensive leader with two touchdowns, one of which was a 37 yard jaunt up the middle. Schwandner and Chase each scored six pointers. Hank Bivens, Withrow quarterback, scored on an 80 yard "quarterback sneak."

WOODWARD (34-7). The West Hi Mustangs finished the Public High School League with a perfect 6-0 slate by routing the Woodward Bulldogs. Five men got into the scoring act as Wayne Streibig, Cliff Schwandner, Al Chase, Harry Panaro, and Mel Wulfekamp each tallied once. Wulfekamp's 6-pointer came on a 99-yard return of an intercepted Bulldog aerial.

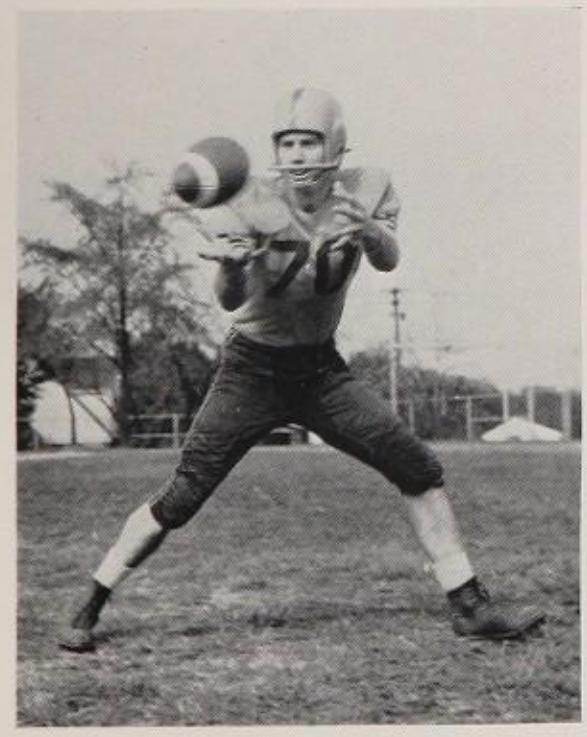
Harry Panaro, Halfback.



Tom Montgomery, Tackle.



Roger Frank, Center.



Doug Busch, Right End.

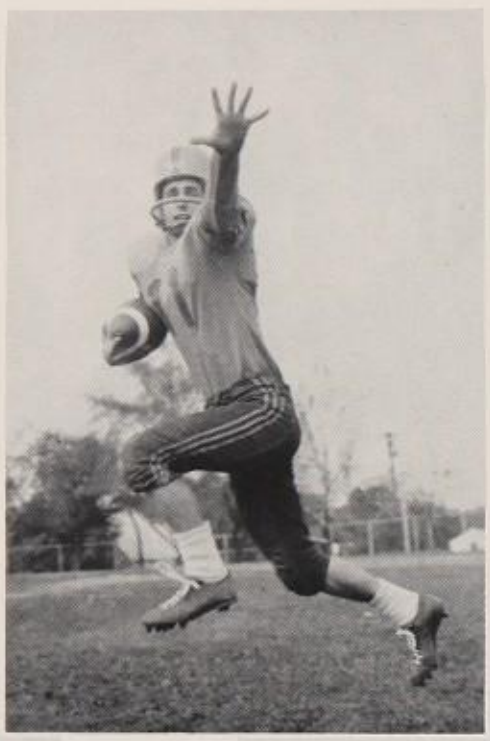
Four Woodward Bulldogs struggle to drop a hard charging Mustang on the 22 yard line.

MUSTANGS TOO MUCH FOR PANTHERS

ELDER (20-13). Western Hills defeated the Elder Panthers for the first time since 1952 in a hard fought battle Thanksgiving morning on the loser's field. Quarterback Bob Shimizu played a brilliant game as he ran and passed for valuable yardage. Defensive end, Tom Montgomery, recovered an Elder fumble on the Panthers' 46 yard line, and the Mustangs drove from there for the winning touchdown. Halfback Wayne Streibig scored twice on short runs and fullback Dick Kuehn bullied his way from the 4 yard stripe to round out the Mustang scoring. Once again the brilliant line play was the little bit of difference that spelled victory.

Al Klein, Tackle.

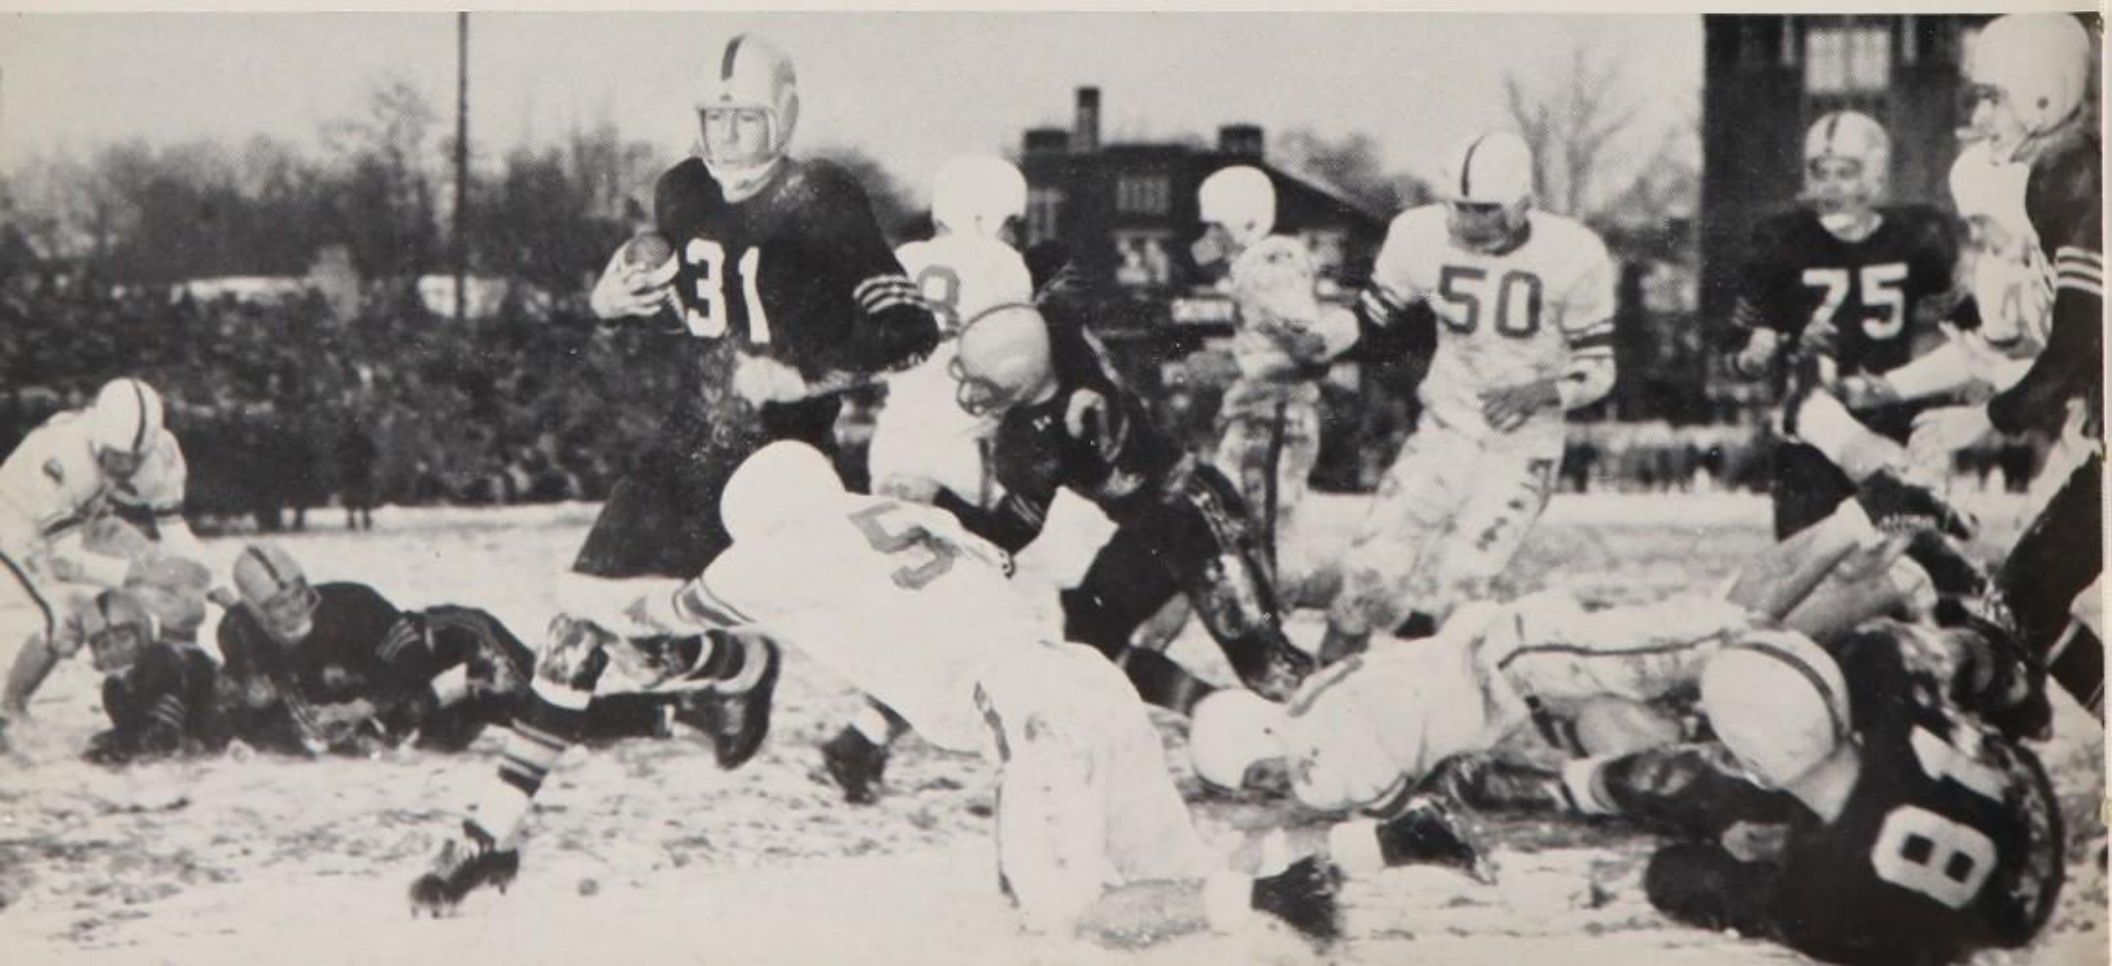
Al Chase, Halfback.



Ken Sappington, Left End

Bob Brater, Guard.

Wayne Streibig runs wild through the Elder defense.



The reserve Mustangs and Coach Singerman assemble on the practice field after concluding the most successful season in many years.

Although the reserve football team played in the shadow of the City Champs, they enjoyed a victorious season and will provide many excellent varsity players for the future. Under the direction of Coach Singerman, the reserves beat Woodward, Central, and Withrow, who ended up league champions. The Mustangs ended the season with losses to Walnut, Hamilton, Hughes and a tie with Taft. Some of the Reserve players that Coach Singerman expects to be varsity material next year are Walter Dietz, a center, Don Covert and Jack Henneckers, interior line men, Tom Hiedler, a tackle, Harry Ruskamp, a halfback, and Dick King, a fullback and punter. In all, the reserve team enjoyed a successful season and provided many boys with important initial experience.

Bill Anderson squirms, fights, and bulls his way for sixteen yards.

NO BETTER—NO WORSE FOURTH IN PHSL

Although the season's basketball record of six wins and thirteen losses appears as a blot on the books, the true fight and spirit which the Mustangs put forth isn't recorded. The squad played its best against the top teams and slacked off against the mediocre. In the Norwood game, for example, the Mustangs played tight, well-balanced ball, but were shaded by two points in the closing seconds. The same thing happened against Woodward, the PHSL co-champions. In a return contest, however, the Mustangs pulled the upset of the season and dumped the Bulldogs by one point. This defeat cost Woodward the championship.

The Mustangs gained victories over Central, Withrow, Walnut and Portsmouth with a fast breaking, aggressive attack. Sharp shooting and control of the backboards were also big factors in these wins.

The Mustangs didn't always play their best, however, and so lost some games to Hamilton, Walnut, Purcell and Hughes. The other losses to Elder, Taylor, Taft and Xavier can be directly attributed to lack of height. Not many rebounds are taken away from teams who have a four inch height advantage. Tall boys became a necessity in recent years, but this year West Hi had no boys six-six or better. This situation, however, will be remedied next year as many freshmen coming up are six feet tall and over.

MUSTANG MORALE IS HIGH

In spite of a poor team record, several Mustang players were outstanding. Fred Schneider, high scoring center, was honored by being given an Honorable Mention on the All-City team. Bob Czerwinski, hard driving forward, chalked up a score of points in several games. Warren Kirchner, set-shot artist, sparked the team from his guard position. Gene Wood, one of our two juniors, faked under, shot over, and drove around the opposition.

Wood and Jim Lemen, a hard charging guard, will be the only varsity lettermen returning next year. Since Mr. Siekman will devote his full time to being Athletic Director, West Hi will face the prospect of having a green squad and also a new coach. To increase the difficulty, there will be two new teams on the schedule: Princeton, a powerful upstate foe, and Harrison, a perennial powerhouse in the County League. Thus, the Mustangs of 1958 have a challenge to meet in the field of basketball.

The outstretched arms of K. Sappington and F. Schneider aren't enough to overpower Larry Smith as Hughes defeats Western in the last minutes.

Members of the reserve team: First Row: J. Bovard, F. Lewis, J. Paner, D. Fletcher, D. Hayes, R. Greiser, Coach Bob Rain. Second Row: J. Phillips, M. McMullen, J. Nickerson, Jack Nickerson, T. Enzweiler, C. Schott, J. Hensley, J. Knox, K. Conatser, manager Art Rosser.

RESERVE MUSTANGS KEY TO FUTURE

Although the Mustang junior varsity opened the season on a sour note, losing to both Norwood and Portsmouth, the squad gained some momentum and roared through the rest of the schedule with a 11-5 slate. Eight victories in twelve games against PHSL competition paced the J.V.'s to second place in the league. In addition to crushing PHSL rivals the reserves stung the Yellow Jackets from Taylor and trounced Purcell's Cavaliers.

The highlight of the season was the winning contest against Elder. Much interest revolved about this game, as both Elder's District Champs and our Mustangs will graduate the bulk of their respective varsities this year. The results of this game could foreshadow things to come in varsity play next year.

The leader of this .637 season, Mr. Robert Rain, is a new face in West Hi's coaching department. Mr. Rain graduated from the University of Cincinnati where he captained the Bearcat hoop squad in his senior year. Next year Mr. Rain will probably be called upon to coach our varsity team, since Mr. Siekman, as Director of Athletics, must relinquish major coaching duties. Accompanying Mr. Rain next year will be Ralph Greisser, a flashy sophomore guard, Don Fletcher, a stellar backcourt performer, and Jim Hensley, a jumpshot artist.

A Trojan hand is of no avail as Don Fletcher drives past his men and lays one up.

TO RUN—
OR NOT TO RUN—
BETTER RUN OR FREEZE

Over hill and dale, through brook and farm speed the tall, lean, panting cross country sprinters. They travel up and down the rugged countryside building leg muscles and gaining experience as they complete long endurance runs.

When the first chill of autumn cuts the air, Coach Bob Rain begins drilling his boys and preparing them for the many meets at Avon Fields. Cross country runs abreast with football and is usually eclipsed in the latter's overtowering shadow, yet these boys practice almost as strenuously as the gridsters do. In spite of their misery, these boys usually manage to smile—for they enjoy being "dead."

Reserve Cross Country members: First Row: Coach Bob Rain, C. Sparenberg, G. Bolinger, P. Agostini, L. Pavloff. Middle Row: J. Teper, J. Hissong, B. Palton, D. Hissong, B. Johnson, G. Bitsoff, J. Bingham, M. Chastain. Back Row: B. Francis, L. Koking, R. Fischback, M. Brueggemann.

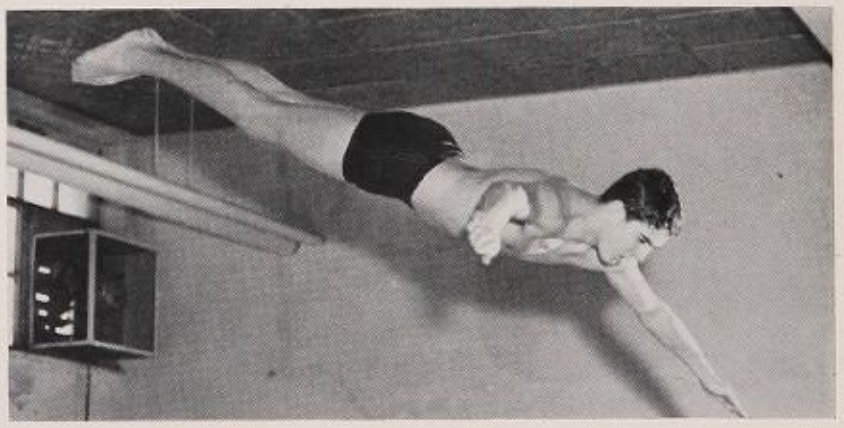
BEST TEAM IN A DECADE

The most successful Western Hills swimming team in over a decade was the reward of grinding practice and persistent efforts. Winning fourth place in the invitational Bowling Green Relays and capturing third place in the PHSL relays were morale boosters to coach Jim Heinold's boys. The team copped sixth place in the Southwestern Ohio District, and from there Bob Panuska, Chip Faison, Bill Daulton, Max Chastain and Don Rau represented West Hi in the state meet.



Mike Lalosh, trying to outdo a duck, practices a swan dive.

Members of the junior high swimmnig team: Diving—B. Schrebieis, D. Reis, R. Daeumler, P. Meng. Back Row: S. McNamee, C. Maurer, B. Mick, R. Stayin, J. Wietholter, N. Diers, T. Dann, A. Gaskill.

Captain Dave Jeggle, selecting his ball, sizes up his shot as Mr. Hopping and the rest of the team look on.

BOWLING AND GYM TEAMS PROVIDE ACTION

This year's bowling team, guided by Coach Hopping, finished creditably, ending third in the PHSL and having an average of 790 per game. Captain Dave Jeggle with an average of 166 led the team. Following close behind were Walter Flender, 164; Jerry Cinnamon, 162; Ellie Lutz, 159; and Dan Eicker, 158. Craig Devine, Tom Bonfield, and Don Osterfeld were alternates. Jerry Cinnamon had the honor of having the highest score of this year's bowling team, a 257.

There is a new look around the gym this year. Boys on bars, boys on rings, boys on mats, and horses all over. There is not one gym team, but four teams working out. All this is part of Mr. Nohr's "master plan" to bring the gym team to a notable position in the PHSL. With two new junior high teams, introduced this year, prospects are good for a high standing in the future.

L. Pavloff demonstrates the technique which is used on the side horse.

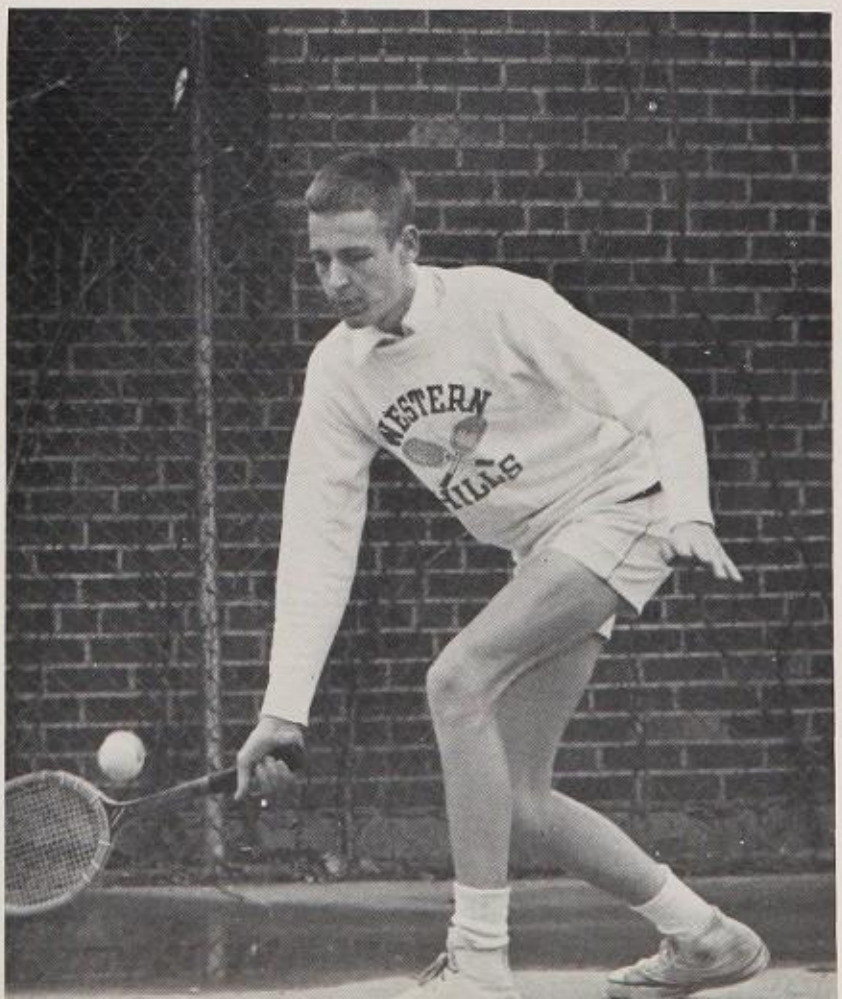
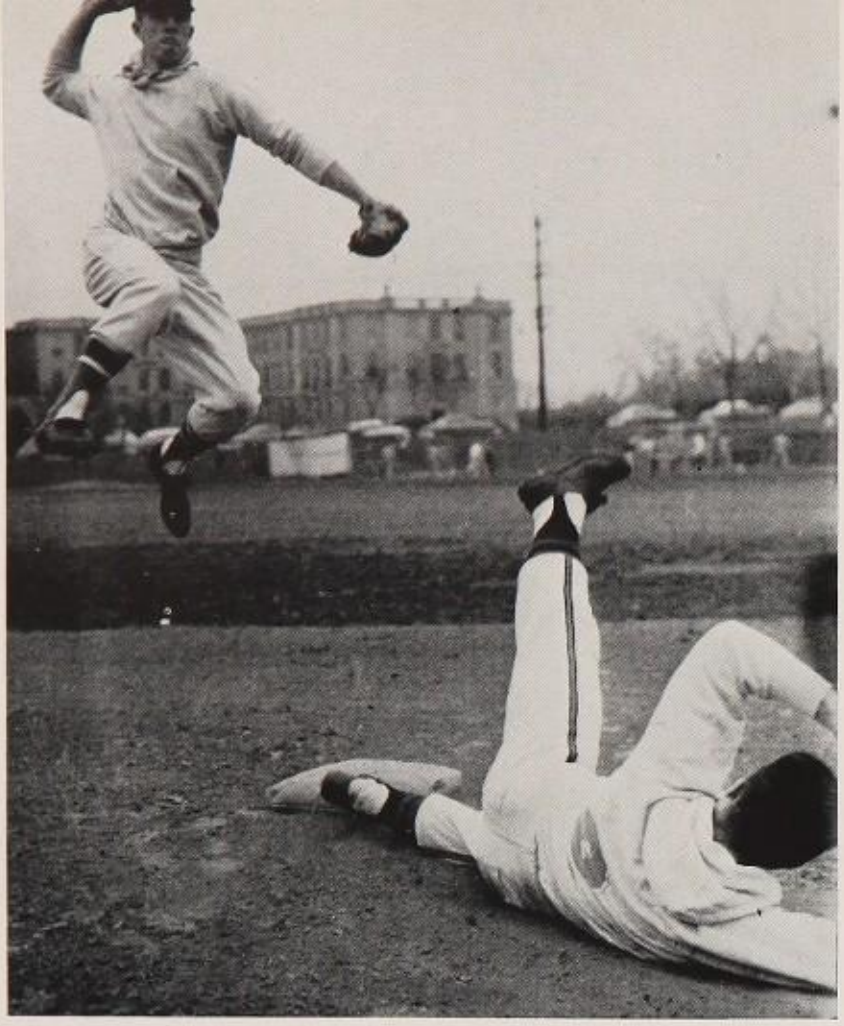
RACKETEERS SLAM THEIR WAY TO SUCCESS

Zip goes the ball over the net as the 1956-57 varsity tennis team prepares for the district tournament. Every day fifteen hopeful Tony Traberts and Vic Sexias endure the cold, dreary spring weather to limber their muscles and to improve their variety of strokes. Because of the bad weather many of the earlier games were postponed. Although the three games with Withrow, Woodward, and Walnut Hills were nothing to talk about, it provided good experience for the sophomores and juniors, who will be next year's team. The singles matches were handled by Ed Ansorg and Bob Hartmann. Martin Brueggemann and Bob Shimizu played the first doubles match. Backing them ably were Dave Lange and Mike Rose.

A clinic was held in early spring for those interested in tennis. At this meeting they received valuable information from an outstanding player, Ernie Spiller, a professional, who showed technique, strategy, and stroke productions. Although the team started off slowly, with these fundamentals as groundwork they steadily improved under the direction of the new coach, Mr. Kappes.

Ed Ansorg displays excellent form as he returns a low smash.





Bob Czerwinski leaps high into the air as he forces a man at second.

CHAMPS DEFEND TITLE

Rain, snow, sleet and cold weather prevented Coach Paul Nohr's team from getting their pre-season practice on the field and consequently most of the batting, throwing, and running was done in the gym. But the wet weather did not dampen the hopes of the team for defending their title as PHSL champs. George Burkely and Terry Murphy held down the first base position while Bob Czerwinski and Fred Fox performed ably at the keystone. Joe Winn and sophomore Jerry Paner battled at shortstop and the hot corner was in the hands of reliable Ken Sappington. West Hi had an abundance of catchers this year in Dick Kuehn, Jim Phillips, Carl Yung, and Roger Witskin, although Kuehn saw the most action. A parade of heavy hitters patrolled the outfield including Harry Panaro, Ron Ismael, Milt Schlenker, Doug Busch, and Walt Nuckols. Left-hander Ron Ott, one of the city's best pitchers, headed a strong hill corps composed of Jack Horton, Fred Schneider, Dick Hayes, and Don Albert. With sluggers Czerwinski, Kuehn, Sappington, Panaro, and Burkely, supporting the hurlers, the Mustangs should retain their PHSL championship.

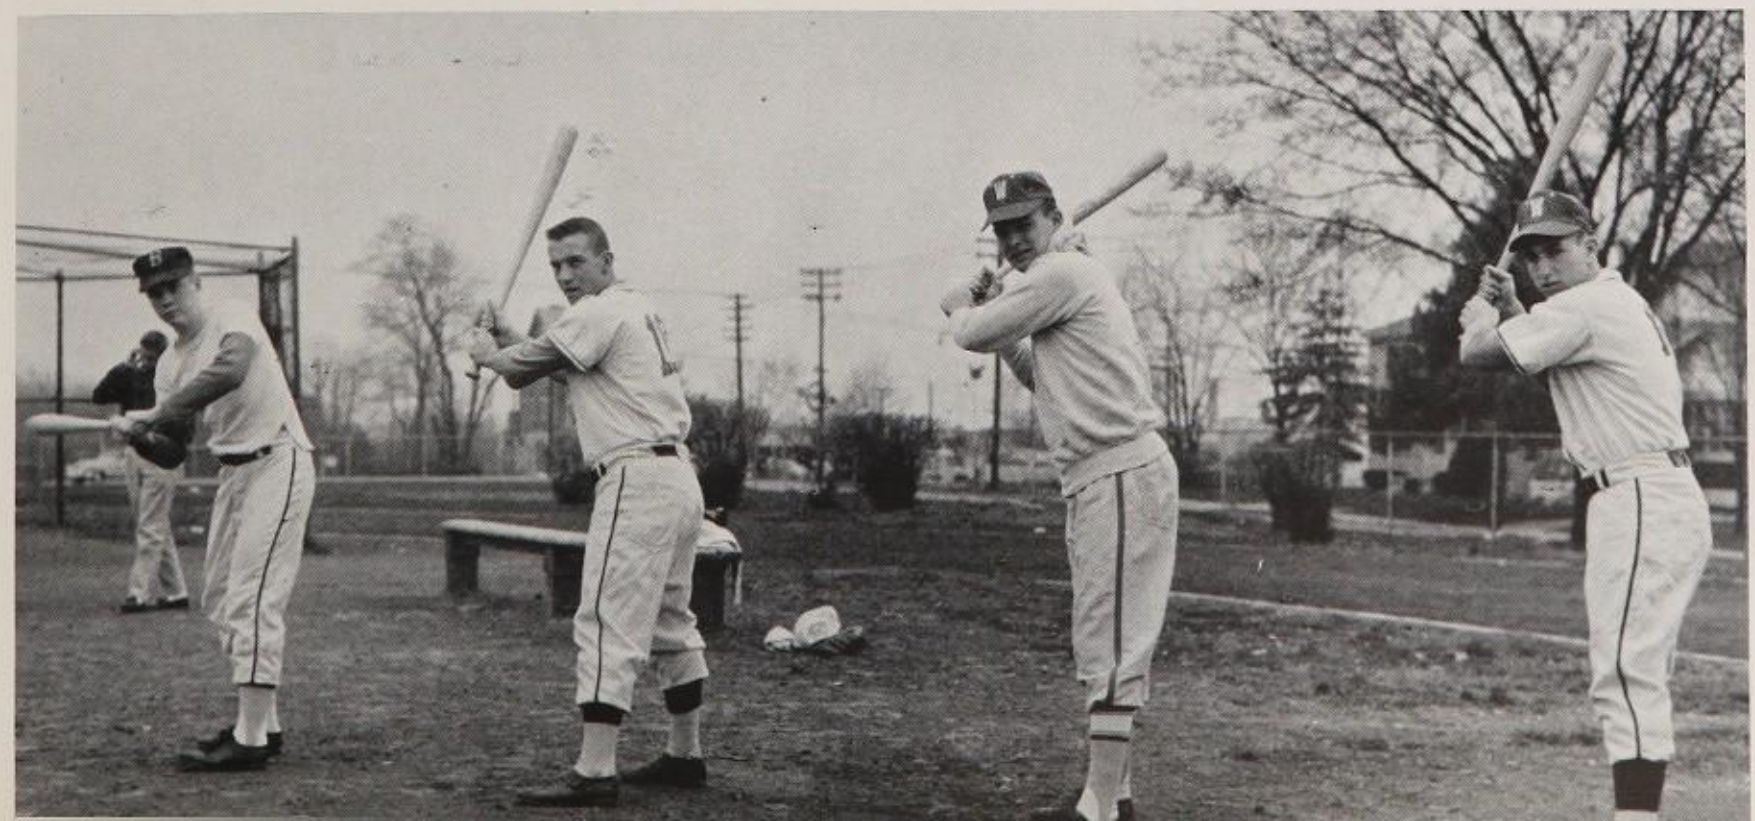
First Row: H. Panaro, J. Philips, G. Burkeley, R. Kuehn, B. Czerwinski, R. Hayes. Second Row: W. Nuckols, T. Murphy, J. Winn, J. Horton, R. Ott, D. Busch, K. Sappington, F. Fox. Third Row: Manager R. Brady, C. Yung, R. Reusing, M. Schlenker, F. Schneider, D. Albert, J. Paner, Manager C. Reynolds.

WEATHER DOESN'T HELP

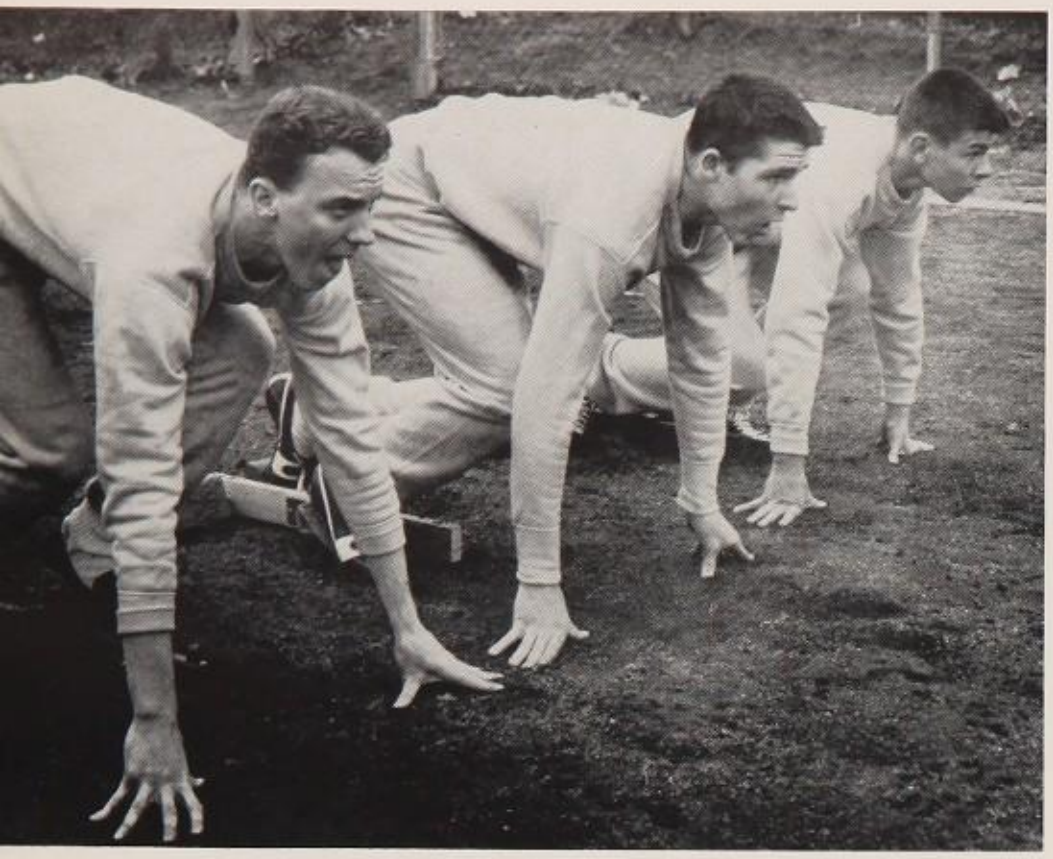
Warming up before the game are Jack Horton, Ron Ott, Fred Schneider, and Don Albert.

In an intersquad game, George Burkely stretches for the ball putting Terry Murphy out at first base.

Fred Fox, Dick Kuehn, Ken Sappington, and Harry Panaro, murderers' row, form West Hi's fearsome quartet that any pitcher would hate to face.



CINDERMEN ARE READY



R. Martin, C. Schott, K. Aichele "get set" for the 100 yard dash.

With new enthusiasm, unlimited energy, and grim determination, the Mustang harriers, resplendent in brilliant new yellow warm-ups, turned out for practice resolved to move up in the PHSL. In addition to the experienced track men, Coach Bathiany, who is in his second year of coaching track for West Hi, had at least fifty new boys, each fighting for a spot in one of the twelve events.

Bob Sohngen shows Al Klein his address, which practice makes perfect.

Hurdling comes natural for John Edwards.

TO GO—RAIN OR SNOW

Early in March these boys got together for vigorous training periods and fundamental coaching in field events. They were told that they would be in the best physical condition of their lives by the time the big meets started. Slowly but surely the better performers were singled out until there was a composite team of about thirty members to represent West Hi all over the city, county, and state.

Stan Muggenborg, Bob Brater, Ken Eger, and Bill Anderson, the polevaulters, have all vaulted nine and a half feet or more. All of the men in the weight events have new faces this year: Al Klein, Bob Sohngen, Tom Heidler in the shot put, and Mike Lemert and Mark Steele in the discus. In the hurdles John Edwards, a two year letterman, has been pushed on to better clockings by Harvey Roehling, Wayne Streibig, Joe Gehring, and Jake Schott. Dave Von Stein and Don Phillips have been beating the best runners in the city in the middle distance, and seem sure to carry West Hi's colors to State. Charlie Schott, Jerry Cox, George Sampson, and Don Rau have been adding height and distance in the jumps. Rounding out the squad are Jim Lemen, Dick Ebbers, Paul Mazza, Chuck Clayton, Ken Aichele, and Howard Mangum, fixtures on the sprint relay teams.

MAROON W HONORS LETTERMEN

Membership in Maroon W, an organization of lettermen in all sports, has long been a coveted honor at Western Hills. This year the club numbered one hundred proud boys among its members. With the aid of Mr. Singerman and led by President Paul Maxwell, the letterman had an enjoyable year. Activities included the faculty basketball game, the Guadacanal hockey game, the outing at Coney Island, and the annual dance, in which Florence Wondrack was voted Dream of Maroon and Cream.

As the rain ran over the fairways a cry of "Fore" echoed from the golf course. In spite of the inclement weather the West Hi golf team bravely put in several practice sessions. This year's coaching chores were assigned to Coach Bill Nead. The team, bolstered by last year's stalwarts Robert Francis and Captain Russ Vickery, was composed of Tom Metz, Bob Gerdsen, and Charles Haft. Although golf isn't a major sport at West High, it provides excellent competition.

BE HAPPY—
GO HEALTHY WITH GAA

Mrs. Edgeworth and Miss Kolks are furnished with refreshments by Anna Winningham, Colleen Corcoran, and Deanna Patterson at the faculty sports party.

The small western town of G.A.A. was rip-roarin' and rarin' as Sheriff Carol Brech addressed the townspeople to open the 1956-57 year. At the roundup, alert deputies lassoed many new members and introduced them to the law of the town, the G.A.A. Board; thus, another gala year of girls' athletics got underway.

During the year, G.A.A. planned outings, with camping instructions, and parties for all. At Thanksgiving, G.A.A.'s basket had a prominent place on the stage with the other baskets for the needy. Competition in all sports was keen during fall, winter, and spring.

When activities cooled down, time for the greatest occasion in the year, the G.A.A. banquet, arrived. As the underclassmen filed up to the speaker's table to receive their awards, beaming smiles suffused all faces, but as the seniors stepped forward, their faces told a different story. In each girl's heart was the realization that she was leaving something very fine behind her as she closed her final year of G.A.A.

Miss Wilte's smiling face is familiar to every girl.

HOCKEY SEASON REAPS BRUISED SHINS AND LOTS OF FUN

"Whee!" blares the shrill whistle of a hockey referee, "Sticks!" Yes, hockey season is here again—with its muddy fields, bruised shins, and, of course, that half-mile hike to Oskamp's playing field. As any hockey player knows, however, the time and energy required to play the game will pay off in the exciting moment a winning goal is made.

While the crack of sticks sent whirling pucks down the field, this year's hockey manager, Meg Flickinger, kept everything running smoothly. Future hockey players should have more energy than ever, because their half-mile hike has been cut to only a few steps. A new dream field, made possible by the Dads' Club and constructed beside the parking lot, will be ready for use next fall. The 1957 season, under the management of Carol Traut, will bring the same kind of fun and many stares from bus drivers as tired, dirty girls in shorts, levis, and bermudas, climb aboard for home.

With a clash of their sticks, Janet Westerhaus and Janice Mills plunge into a dashing game of hockey.

Ann Altemeier, who rolls the ball in to Carol Ensminger from out of bounds, corrects a foul.

A long awaited hockey field in progress.

It's a tense moment for Toni Warburg as Bonnie Strike dashes toward the goal in an attempt to slam the ball into the cage.

At the close of an exciting game, Phyllis Lehman, Verilyn Swedersky, and Nancy Gieringer try to score a winning goal as Joanne Melillo capably bars the cage.

SWIMMING MAKES A BIG SPLASH AT WEST HI

Splash! "Brrr, this water's freezing!" Regardless of the temperature of the water, every Tuesday the pool room is filled with shouts of laughter and dismay as the girls leap or creep into the pool.

As the first season of swimming opens, the girls in the lifesaving class practice answering calls of distress such as "Help! I'm drowning!" After three months of hard work and fun, most girls are rewarded by becoming registered lifesavers, while a few gain coveted positions on the Lifesaving Corps.

Practice for the swimming meet is considered the second season of swimming. To make a good showing in the meet, held on April 9, the girls practiced steadily. Their excellent performance can be accredited to the help and support they received from their instructors.

The rough and tumble season of water polo arrives with spring. As the school year ends, swimmers reluctantly leave the pool after spending a last Tuesday afternoon playing water polo.

MODERN DANCE AND VOLLEYBALL DEVELOP GRACE

Up and over! With Connie Bunte ready to assist, Evelyn Zimmer slams the ball to Helen Vaias.

The split second the basketball sinks into the basket is considered by many people the most exciting moment of the game. Below, Cathy Kamp, Gail Polster, and Karen Lundin jump to score while Linda Kespohl, Linda Delseno, Janice Remle, and Diane Brater prepare to grab the ball.

Looking forward to games and hopeful about the future, the advanced basketball team listens eagerly as Mrs. Cook and Nancy Wohlwender explain new techniques and tricky shots. Front Row: M. Adler, M. Flickinger, C. Weiss, M. White, B. Kammerle, C. Gudgeon, D. Hauss, L. Liddil, B. Tuerck. J. Tuertscher. Back Row: T. Warburg, M. Poli, K. Yearout, J. Blankenship, J. Avey, C. Brech.

WEST HIGH BLOOMER GIRLS DRIBBLE THEIR WAY TO VICTORY

Bounce-bounce-pass; bounce-bounce-pass; bounce-bounce—shoot! This very familiar routine is the heart of every girls' basketball game.

Starting the 1957 season, which was a rip-roaring success, the advanced team sparked new interest in the student body as they demonstrated in school assemblies the functioning of a girls' basketball team. Boys, highly amused by the complicated rules, decided to stick to their own form of game. Enthusiasm was still high as the girls' team vied with each other for the honor of being top team by winning the most games. Interest reached a peak as girls speculated on who would be picked to go to the public high school basketball playday, and joy was unlimited when the West Hi teams returned home victorious. Thoughts now raced ahead to the basketball supper, the climax of the season. At this time veteran senior dribblers are honored by their junior sisters on the advanced team. After keeping the audience in suspense during the evening, manager Nancy Wohlwender finally announced that Carol Weiss was to head-up next year's basketball season. Leaving the supper, girls eagerly began to make plans for the coming year's teams and games.

A flick of the wrist and a new game is begun. Julie Shinkle throws the basketball up for Sally Myers and Jackie Herbert.

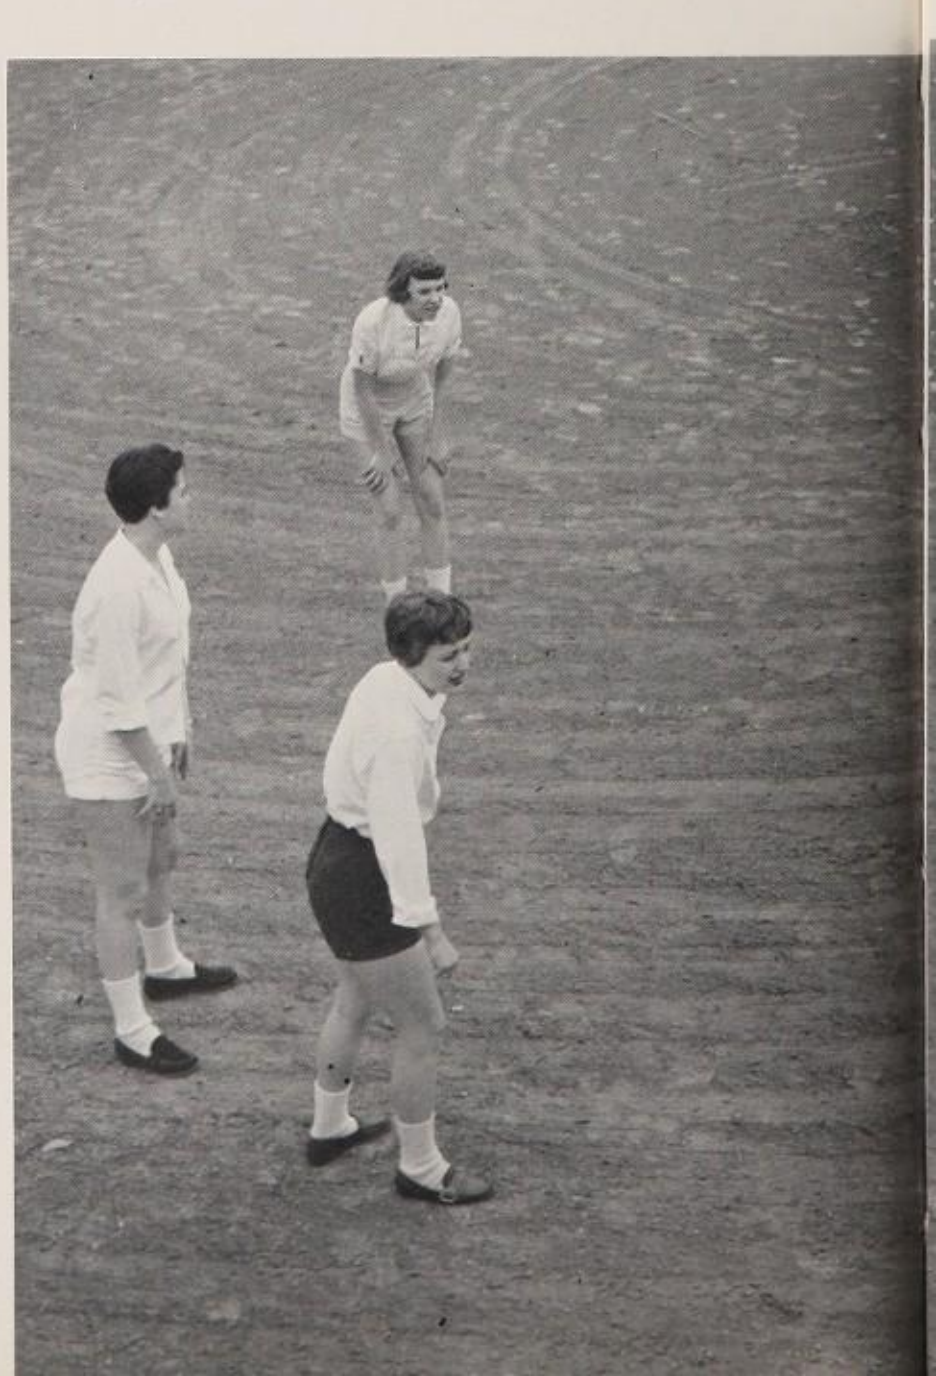
Sandy Scheidt skillfully reaches for an easy catch.

"She's out!" Meg Flickinger's split-second timing crushes Toni Warburg's high hopes for a tying run.

RAIN DROWNS CRIES OF "PLAY BALL"

Come Spring and usually softball. But this spring there came also heavy rains, floods, snow, and even tornado warnings. As a result softball practice was cancelled and there were only short meetings in the gym for the first few weeks. But finally Mr. Sun decided it was time to "play ball" and the teams began getting in shape for the playday in May.

Besides the weather problem, another puzzler was where to play the games. Although the baseball diamond (the new hockey field) was completed, the rains had formed a soggy swamp. Though the field was wet, spirits of the girls were not dampened. With hope undying they picked up their bats and marched to the upper field where, under the instruction of Mrs. Koster, they learned to pick up sizzling grounders, throw in a straight line, and even clout homers.



What a fix to be in! Joyce Miller, caught between Eileen Bovard and Joanne Melillo, attempts to reach third base.

THE BIG WIDE WONDERFUL WORLD OF KIDS

Energy, enthusiasm, excitement . . .
Leadership, cooperation,
Ingenuity . . .
Giggles, laughter, fun . . .
Blue jeans, cashmeres, crew cuts,
Books, baby-sitting,
Scholarships . . .
As diversified as this
Is the Big Wide Wonderful
World of Kids.

A few of our twins! Our twins are many and varied: boys and girls, identical and fraternal, but all add zest to life at West Hi. Paired from top to bottom are Jack and Jerry Nickerson, Bill and Charles Reusing, Dale and Dan Heiser, Janet and Joan Immenhort, Judy and Julie Baker, Pat and Barbara Reuss.

VARIETY SPARKS THE WORLD OF KIDS

The World of Kids—what a wonderful world it is and what a variety of individuals: big kids, little kids, fat kids, thin kids, noisy kids; quiet ones, lazy ones. Kids in activities and kids who just watch. Kids who really do things and kids who do not. Then there is the special kind who come double—twins—and West Hi has its share of them. Twenty-three sets of twins, a few of whom are pictured on these pages, speckle the halls from lunchroom to gym.

Everyone, whether twins or not, from the lowly "rookie" to the lordly senior, participates in this wonderful world of competition, friendship, and fun where some become leaders and others are happy to follow.

Locker trouble is trouble for all and twins aren't exceptions. Barb

"Basketball Queen? We're a litt'e young, but we can dream." Judy and Joan Elder consider their chances.

Twins in every respect! We even eat the same food. Charles and Bill Kubicki add pie to their tray as Ted and Tom Enswiler survey the tempting salads.

and Bev Ivy wish they were more skilled as do Jan and Joan Weston.

"Hey, those formals aren't alike!" This doesn't bother Mary and Martha Rippy as they are twins who don't care to dress alike.

STUDENT COUNCIL LEADS THE WORLD OF KIDS

The record of this year's Student Council is one of numerous achievements. A modern lunchroom disc jockey booth, Thanksgiving baskets overflowing with food for the less fortunate, canteens for that something-to-do after the game, and sweet rolls sold between exam periods are all evidence of an alert Council at work.

Debby Beiser, chairman, discusses one of the many problems of the Student-Teacher-Parent Board with Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Harry Kohl.

Who will be Sweetheart King and Queen? Junior student Council officers, C. York, B. Brueggemann, J. Spragens, and S. Spreen, wonder as they place their votes in the Valentine ballot box.

Chairman D. Kiewit and members of the service award committee make out certificates for worthy students.

C. Cottingham and Chairman M. McMillan smile as they read a humorous grievance.

Student Council's committees made possible its extensive program of school service. The social whirl at West Hi, enlarged by the Victory Dance and the canteens after the games, was sponsored by the Social Committee. Important events were brought to our attention by the Calendar and Publicity committees. Informative assemblies and homeroom discussions were presented by the Safety committee. The Pep Club was organized and pride in our school was heightened by the School Spirit committee. The complaints of the students were aptly handled by the Grievance Board. The team work of these committees gave Student Council a firm foundation for a successful year.

ROOKIES FACE A BRIGHT NEW WORLD ITS TRIALS AND THRILLS

Surrounded by admirers, football captain Paul Maxwell willingly autographs pictures of West Hi's championship squad.

By the end of the first few weeks our rookies are growing up. They are becoming accustomed to the routine of West Hi. No longer are they getting lost in the halls, and arriving at class on time is becoming a habit. The rookie's allowance seems to be going farther since the lunches are shrinking. Locker trouble seems to be less frequent, and combinations are more familiar. The rookie is starting to belong to West Hi!

SWEETHEART DANCE INTRODUCES SOCIAL LIFE TO ROOKIES

The first big social event, the Sweetheart Dance, is coming in February. The telephones are ringing, mothers are busy sewing on that special dress, girls are shopping for that certain necklace and matching bracelet. Boys are earning extra money for that big date, doing jobs they had never thought about doing before. Fathers are busy teaching the art of tying bow ties. Parents are wondering how long this confusion will go on—why, it's just beginning! There are hayrides, picnics, swimming parties, and then there is always the big spring dance to look forward to. These things are all a part of our rookies' lives.

Aglow with the excitement of her first high school dance, Jo Ellyn Gambral takes a last look into the mirror before the doorbell rings.

Sprucing up before leaving, David Kraus carefully straightens his troublesome tie for that extra-special date to the Sweetheart Dance.

Dave and Jo Ellyn arrive at the dance filled with the anticipation of a pleasant evening of dancing, entertainment and sociability.

EIGHTH GRADE WORLD IS PACKED WITH ENERGY AND GROWTH

Only one year has passed since the eighth graders were "rookies," but to them it seems that many more months than twelve have gone by. Last year the school was new and strange to them. This year they are taking fuller part in Y-Teens, Hi-Y, junior high Breeze and junior G.A.A. They now experience the thrill of playing in orchestra or bands, at games and in assemblies. They enjoy the world of sports. It's no wonder the eighth graders have a successful year.

This is only a picture of a boys' gym class playing football, but we think Fred Reinhard has caught an unusual shadow effect.

Squads! Sit up straight! Mrs. Lilly checks posture as anxious girls await dismissal.

THE NINTH GRADE SPARKLES WITH CHEER

Personality queens, K. England, J. Cottingham and B. Bizzarri display the smiles which helped them win their titles.

Form is important to junior majorettes E. Seyferth, A. Petry, C. Bowman, J. Ireland, D. Hartig, P. Stewart, M. Haft, and J. Walters.

Ninth grade—the last year in junior high. Three stimulating years have passed and three are in the future promising unusual, interesting, and informative experiences. But this year has its own memories and each person remembers something different. The cheerleaders and majorettes remember the games; the junior band and orchestra remember their performances; girls remember the Sweetheart Dance and boys remember sports. We remember the clubs we have joined and the teachers we have had—but none of us can forget the friends we have made or the fun we have had.

"Let's go!" yell the junior varsity cheerleaders C. Conner, S. Rhodes, J. Bunger, B. Keller, G. Schroth, C. Bertsche, and B. Brueggemann as they show their pep and enthusiasm.

No more walking to Oscamp's to play hockey—our new field is under way.

SOPHOMORES AWAIT COMPLETION OF NEW HOCKEY FIELD

Strange as it may seem, Sophomores' minds are not always idle. For boys there are sports, sports, sports, and maybe clothes and girls. For girls there are boys, boys, boys, and maybe clothes and sports. With a little bit of school thrown in, both sexes are usually kept very busy.

Tenth grade girls who have been waiting since their seventh grade for the new hockey field were rather disappointed this fall when they found it in progress but not completed. Being now in Sr. GAA, however, they found many new activities to keep them busy. Added to their previous sports were badminton, table tennis, and archery. Tenth grade boys, having waited and practiced since the seventh grade, now were able to try out for reserve and varsity teams. Intramural sports were offered for those who did not make the grade. With so much activity available, both mind and might were kept quite busy this year.

"Maybe next year," sigh the girls, L. Hoog, S. Conover, M. Cahall, C. Beck, J. Bockhurst, C. Binstadt, C. Johns and B. Bennet as they see that their field will not be ready for this year's hockey season.

PEP CLUB AROUSES TEAM AND SCHOOL SPIRIT

BUSINESS CLUB TAKES EDUCATIONAL TOURS

Attention! Interested in business? Join the Business Club. This senior high group of over one hundred and fifty students has accomplished everything they set out to do and has had a lot of fun doing it. Heading the list of activities were the excursions to Proctor and Gamble and the Federal Reserve Bank. Both these trips offered practical acquaintance with the work of business, and the thrill of learning by first-hand observation. Another highlight of the year was the dance where the candidates for basketball queen were introduced. Closing the Business Club year was the gala picnic held for all members in May.

Leaving for their tour of Proctor and Gamble are the officers of Business Club: J. Blankenship, J. Niemes, G. Nagele and J. Holton.

How big and complicated everything is! There must be a great deal of work that goes into the making of just one little bar of soap.

Looking further into the production of one of Ivorydale's "floaters," curious club members see the soap made into bars, cut up and branded.

A Snowshoe Shuffle and no snow? No, but plenty of shufflin' 'round at the mid-winter Junior Class Roundup

FUN IS THE CREED OF THE CLASS OF '58

With the opening of West Hi's doors in September, a wonderful- fun-filled year stretched forward for the junior class. The crisp, brown days of autumn saw the juniors carry out their first important class function, the election of the junior class officers. After some lively competition, Jim Lemen was elected president; Mike Lemert, vice-president; Carol Cottingham, secretary; and Joan Immenhort, treasurer.

The serious responsibilities over, the juniors turned to fun—food, music, singing, and dancing. The annual junior class roundup, this year's mid-winter Snowshoe Shuffle, provided these in abundance. Though fun was the creed of the class of '58, it was not only gay and care-free fun, but also the fun found in the challenge of its studies. That the juniors met this scholastic challenge was evidenced by the fact that of the thirty-two senior high students on the mid-year "A" Honor Roll, fifteen were juniors.

With members on West Hi's city champs football team and all other varsity squads, and featured performers in "Bandwagon," Western Hills' junior class carried its standard high in all school activities.

Tell us another one! John Schaal and Nels Homan act as MC's.

"Everyone grab a partner," shouted the caller; the "Mountain Do" was under way. "Country folk," J. Blankenship, P. Lehman, G. Iames, S. Lehman, and L. Lenzer, provided the entertainment.

The crowd waited in eager anticipation; the lights dimmed; the drums rolled; and then, Jean Blankenship stepped forth to be crowned Football Queen of 1957. Her attendants were Kathy Eckert and Janet Voll.

Senior Class President, Bob Shimizu, seems to have "time on his hands," as he places the bronze sundial on its pedestal in the court. Other class officers—Barb Seyferth, Vice-President; Cliff Schwandner, Treasurer; and Carol Brech, Secretary, offer advice.

SENIORS ARE LEADERS IN OUR BUSY WORLD

"Is my tie on straight?" "Oh, my hair's a mess!" "Do I have enough lipstick on?" Such were the flustered comments filling the air as some seniors, Ron Haskamp, Merle Wagner, and Welda Hartzler, primped, before sitting for their senior portraits.

Hedda Hopper's hats were never like this! Lenore Lenzer, Jetta Fannin, and Janet Smith certainly have some original creations.

ACTIVITIES VARY THE PATTERN OF ROUTINE SCHOOL DAYS

The senior year leaves a lasting impression on all Western Hills students. Who could forget the excitement of electing class officers, the suspense of crowning the queens, the gaiety of the "Mountain Do," and the fun at the Senior Outing? Who would want to forget the pride of forming the Jr. Council on World Affairs for the promotion of international relationships? What girl will not cherish the memories of Senior Girls Club, the fellowship and good times experienced while working together? With such memories behind, a senior looks forward to graduation with mixed emotions—sad because such relationships are left behind, but, at the same time, happy because he is grown up and a new life is opening before him.

Composing the club charter for the Jr. Council on World Affairs are the officers, J. Steel ,Mr. Hess, A. Ballestra, A. Altemeier, and G. Spencer.

Senior Girls Club officers and their "little sisters," accompanied by Pat Frederick, sing carols at the Christmas Party. They are W. Gourley, P. Smith, D. Burd, J. Fannin, K. Hansen, P. Hohnroth, G. Clifton, G. Swikard, Mrs. Walter, B. Runtz, K. Kirby, L. Lenzer, P. Kirk, M. Flickinger.

A night to remember always—K. Yearout, J. Voll, and J. Liggett won't soon forget the thrill of being chosen Basketball Queen and attendants.

Tired, hungry, and happy, L. Osborne, M. Brueggemann, L. Miller, M. Lowe, J. Suess, and S. Toleski, find a shady place to eat and talk of the fun they are having at the Senior Outing.

THE BUSY WORLD OF BUSINESS

Buzzing machines, happy salesmen, anxious gasoline station attendants . . . The Busy World of Business. We depend greatly on the businesses of our community. We get a coke after school, we get our hair cut every other week, and we dry clean our clothes; our fathers work for this company or that, and we have summer jobs. In a few years we will be getting married. We will build new houses, have pictures of our children taken, and fill our cupboards with groceries.

We feel that we are part of The Busy World of Business and we are grateful to our advertisers for their patronage. We ask you, the readers, to remember the advertisers who have helped make this book possible. Remember them when you go into The Busy World of Business.

FLASH—SPECIAL BULLETIN

Cheviot (WHHS). An outstanding event happened that will never be forgotten by the earth people in Cheviot. A space ship landed on the corner of Glenway and Harrison causing a near riot. People at the scene were amazed at what they saw. One young man was reported as saying that he saw the Maritians wearing corsages from REED'S WEEDS. It just goes to prove that REED'S service is "out of this world."

Dear Claudia,

We just can't wait 'till your visit. Roger says bring your shorts, bathing suit, tennis racket, and don't forget the latest copy of the Western Hills Press. Rogers says we don't have anything like the "Press" here in Mackinaw, and Roger knows. Roger says it tells all the local news. Roger really goes for high school sports and he says you learn the latest in the "Press". Roger misses the "Press" want ads; he found so many good buys there. Of course, Roger's been reading the "Press" since 1924 when the WESTERN HILLS PUBLISHING CO. first began, but since an expansion, its' better than ever, Roger says.

The weather's been great for swimming. I hope it stays this way. I'm looking forward to seeing you soon. Oh! Don't forget the Western Hills Press for Roger. And bring one for me too!

Love,

Marge

Bouquets to the wonderful people who have helped the staff produce the '57 Annual.

To Uncle Russell Benson and Duncan Schiedt, his assistant, for suffering through our picture schedules and helping layout the 200 and some pages of THE WORLD OF WESTERN HILLS.

To Buddy Shaw and the Benson Printing Company for our fine print job.

To John Hancock and Jahn & Ollier Engraving Company for their fabulous service in engraving our book.

To Kingsport Press for our cover.

To Mr. Bush, Mr. Favret, and Mr. Augenbaugh of the Photo-Reflex Studio at Shillito's for their tremendous job on Senior Class portraits and their on-the-spot coverage of our games and dances.

To our faculty and administration for their splendid cooperation in helping us produce this yearbook.

To Eileen Bovard and Mr. Lilly for our cover design and for their help with the opening section art.

To Indiana School Pictures for their fine job on our Underclass pictures.

To Miss Weber and Mr. Love, our advisors, for enduring all the anxieties in working with us to get this book to press.

We are deeply indebted to these people because without their interest and assistance the staff could not have produced this yearbook.
